

Your Invitation To Worship

Learning Life's Little Things

Little things can really add up! Don't despise the little lessons. Here are a few:

I've learned that no matter what happens, or how bad it seems today, life does go on, and it may be better tomorrow.

I've learned that a person's character is often revealed in the way that they drive.

I've learned that regardless of how good or bad a relationship with parents was, they will be missed when they're gone.

I've learned that making a "living" is not the same thing as making a "life."

I've learned that life sometimes gives me a second chance to try again.

I've learned that I shouldn't go through life with a catcher's mitt on both hands. I need to be able to throw something back.

I've learned that even when I have pains, I don't have to be one.

I've learned that every day, I should reach out and touch someone. People love that human touch - holding hands, a warm hug, or just a friendly pat on the back.

I've learned that I still have a lot to learn.

Sometimes, it the little thing that mean the most. To learn more, visit one of Milton's fine local places of worship this week. Service times and locations are published for you in the Religious Directory below.
