Night to remember

Friday night's thunder, lightning and heavy downpour weren't enough to drive away Milton Relay for Life-goers from the Milton Fair Grounds. Most participants took shelter in the grandstands and fairgrounds office until the storm passed and then continued on with the fourth annual cancer fundraiser, which has already brought in $275,000 — with funds still being collected.

Clockwise from left, Pam Belair and Kristina Vella light candles on a tray of cupcakes — which they made for a fourth straight year at E.C. Drury High School's baking department — to help celebrate the night. Now at college, the two returned to Drury to continue the tradition. Raising a hefty $14,285.71, team Barb's Buds members (from left) Mary Hing, Lelieth Clark, Joyce Graham, Sandy Herman, Wayne Herman, Paul Poon, Kim Strauss, Bruce Graham, Wanda Armitage and Eva Hansen enjoy the festivities. Luminaries line the fairgrounds track, lighting the way for walkers. A pair of relay participants try to make it across the street to shelter in the rain.
