

More efficiency expected with merger of Red Cross Halton councils

The Canadian Red Cross branch councils for north Halton, Oakville and Burlington have merged to create one regional council.

The recent move will allow the agency to serve the entire region with efficiency and combined skills, experience and knowledge.

The community branch offices located in Milton, Burlington and Oakville will remain unchanged.

Red Cross branch council members play an advisory role to branch staff and volunteers in assessing community needs, monitoring service delivery and supporting local fundraising and public relations activities.

The Canadian Red Cross is always looking for volunteers to take on roles ranging from governance to service delivery and administration.

To learn more about volunteer opportunities call the local branch at (905) 875-1459.

Look in Tuesday's and Friday's paper each week for these features. Delivered to every home in Milton, Campbellville, Hornby.
