Short bench costly for Under-12 girls

Summer vacations left Milton's Under-12 girls with a severely short lineup Wednesday night — contributing to their only non-victory in regular season play.

A 1-1 stalemate against Clarkson B put the Magic at 7-0-1 in the South Region Soccer League's Second Division.

A penalty shot deposit by the hosts evened things up with about 15 minutes remaining after Hayley Schroder had given Milton the lead early on, burying a well-placed corner kick from Cassidy Chatten.

The tie came on the heels of the hectic weekend of Ontario Cup playdown action.

The Magic return to Lions Sports Park Tuesday night to take on Mississauga B. Game time is 7 p.m.
