

Road rage fatality suspect returns to court next month

The court case of a Milton man who's been charged in an alleged road rage incident that killed a fellow Miltonian has been remanded.

Wayne Winsor, 39, has been charged with criminal negligence causing death, dangerous driving causing death and failing to remain causing death.

His case came up at Ontario Court of Justice in Milton Wednesday morning and was remanded to September 24, also in Milton.

As the Champion previously reported, 55-year-old Tony Greco died early in the morning July 8 while driving to work.

Police told the Champion Greco had been speeding and "jockeying" with the driver of a Pontiac along James Snow Parkway heading toward Hwy. 401.

Once on the highway, just east of James Snow Parkway, the driver of the Pontiac cut in front of Greco and slammed on the brakes.

Greco lost control trying to avoid a collision and was ejected from his SUV.

He was pronounced dead at the scene.

The driver of the Pontiac fled.

Winsor attended a police station later that day and was arrested.

He was released on $25,000 bail at a hearing July 9 on conditions that he reside with his mother in her Milton home and that he not drive.

Mayor to attend GTMA's Celebrity Golf Tournament

Mayor Gord Krantz will soon help the Greater Toronto Marketing Alliance (GTMA) celebrate its 10th anniversary.

The milestone is being marked September 11 by the GTMA's Celebrity Golf Tournament, which Krantz will be attending as a VIP guest. Regional Chair Gary Carr will also be there as one of the hosts for the day.

The event in Kleinburg will double as a fundraiser to support economic development internship opportunities for GTA universities and colleges.

Earlier this year, Krantz traveled to Asia as part of a group representing the GTMA to encourage businesses to set up shop locally.
