Keeping Terry's dream alive

The 28th annual Terry Fox Run drew hundreds of Miltonians to E.C. Drury High School Sunday morning. Clockwise from above, 76-year-old Glenna Dempster — a cancer survivor and a run participant for the past 23 years — gets a big hug from granddaughter Kenidi Gent, 12 (left), and daughter Desta Dempster at the completion of the event, in which they all cycled. Nine-year-old volunteer Abbey Smith hands out water to participants. Glenn Dempster enjoys herself during the event. Firefighters Ryan Tyrer (left) and Colin Widdis show the effects of the heat and humidity as they do the run in firefighter bunker gear — part of a group of about a dozen firefighters who took part. Members of the Winterhawks additional entry atom hockey team participant as a group. Keegan Bean, 5, races his brother Tyler Smith, 15. See a slideshow at www.miltoncanadianchampion.com for more photos of the day's event.
