

Men charged with drunk driving

Police have laid drunk driving charges in connection with three separate incidents on the same day.

At about 2:30 a.m. last Friday, police were conducting spot checks at Main and Martin streets when a vehicle was pulled over on Woodward Avenue. Police said the driver fled on foot before he could be arrested. After a foot pursuit, the suspect was apprehended.

A 35-year-old Woodward Avenue man has been charged with impaired driving, escaping custody, refusing a breath sample and breach of probation.

At 11 p.m. last Friday, police were called by a citizen reporting a motorist was driving in an erratic manner on Ontario Street. Police said the suspect attempted to make a U-turn and spun out of control. The vehicle was located in the southwest parking lot at Ontario and Main streets.

A 43-year-old Thompson Road man has been charged with impaired driving, dangerous driving, breach of probation, having over the legal amount of alcohol in his blood and a number of Highway Traffic Act offences.

And at 11:35 p.m., a suspect was driving a Harley Davidson motorcycle southbound on Eighth Line when he crashed into a post. The driver left the scene and returned with a pick-up truck and trailer, intending to remove the motorcycle. Instead, he was arrested.

A 48-year-old Fourth Line man has been charged with a number of Highway Traffic Act offences including driving without insurance. He also faces charges of impaired driving and driving with over the legal amount of alcohol in his blood.

Poppy boxes stolen

Two poppy donation boxes were stolen last Friday.

The boxes were swiped by unknown suspects from the TD

PoliceBlotter

Canada Trust bank on Main Street sometime between 5 and 8 p.m., police said. It's not known how much money was inside the boxes.

Vehicles broken into; GPS units stolen

Police are reminding residents to lock their vehicles and secure valuables — especially GPS units — after they responded to a number of recent vehicle break-ins.

Overnight November 3, two unlocked vehicles parked in the driveway of a Donnelly Street home were entered by unknown suspects, police said. From one of the vehicles, a golf bag containing equipment valued at a total of $2,500, was stolen. From the second, a hockey bag containing goalie equipment and a Garmin GPS were stolen, valued at a total of $1,200.

Overnight last Friday, a vehicle in a Dolby Crescent driveway was entered. Once again, a Garmin GPS device worth $230 was stolen.

Also last Friday, a vehicle on Donnelly Street was broken into sometime between 5 and 8 p.m. Unknown suspects stole a subwoofer, amplifier, iPod and a GPS valued at a total of $1,600.

And Sunday between midnight and 7 a.m., an unknown suspect entered a vehicle on Lorne Scots Drive and stole a GPS unit valued at $250.

Diesel swiped

About 14,000 litres of diesel fuel was stolen last weekend from a Sixth Line quarry.

Police said the thieves forced their way into the Halton Crush Stone Quarry compound sometime between 9 a.m. Saturday and 12:15 p.m. Sunday. It appears they drove a vehicle to the fuel storage facility and made off with the diesel, which is valued at more than $12,000.

Husband charged

A charge has been laid in connection to a domestic disturbance last Friday.

Police arrived in the early morning at a Milton address in response to a situation between a husband and wife.

A 29-year-old Milton man has been charged with assault.
