

WILTON ARMETALE

Capturing the Spirit of Your Life at Christmas

Wilton Armetale Company is a family-owned and family-run business founded in 1892 by Ralph P. Wilton, Sr. in Lancaster County Pennsylvania. Wilton Armetale® products are still individually cast and meticulously hand-finished so no two pieces are exactly alike.

Armetale® products are also durable and will not crack, chip or dent under normal usage. Each Armetale® product is a solid piece of metal with no coating applied.

- Oven and freezer safe - cook and heat foods in it.

- Freezer and refrigerator safe - freeze or chill foods in it.
- Hot foods cooked and served in Wilton Armetale® products stay hot longer.
- Cold foods and drinks served in Wilton Armetale® products stay cold longer.
- Non toxic - safe for cooking and serving foods.
- Easy care - easy to clean, requires no polishing.
