

Musical theatre production to take stage

A Christmas musical theatre production designed to get audience members thinking about the true meaning of the holiday will make its way into Milton for a performance Sunday night.

2000 Candles, a professional-grade production, will take place at 7:30 p.m. at St. David's Presbyterian Church, 132 Main St. (Guelph Line), in Campbellville as part of its GTA tour.

2000 Candles is a joyous, original musical theatre celebration of more than 2000 Christmases that organizers say is at once contemporary, hip, evocative and delightful.

From vignette to vignette, the audience is taken on a journey through Christmas celebrations and traditions on a quest to find its true meaning.

More than just a typical "church show," organizers say this professional production is accessible and entertaining to a wide audience.

It's directed by Milton resident Tom Carson, whose work has appeared on stages from Montreal to Vancouver, garnering critical acclaim.

The production's four-person cast is made up of Jeanine Noyes (musical director), Richard Peters, Ins Choi and Andrea Cross.

Tickets cost $20 each and are free for kids aged 13 years old and younger.

All proceeds will be donated to The Deck youth centre.

For tickets, call St. David's at (905) 854-9800 or (905) 876-3976.
