EID al Adha (Festival of Sacrifice)

This festival commemorates the sacrifice of Abraham, when he was tested by the command to sacrifice his son, Ismail. After demonstrating his willingness to conform totally to the command of ALLAH, a ram was sent to him to be sacrificed instead of his beloved son. Eid Al Adha marks this supreme example of submission to GOD, which is the cornerstone of the Islamic faith (Islam means "Submission"). Muslims also perform HAJJ-one of the five pillars in islam, at Makkah, during these days.
