

Take your Valentine out for the night

If Valentine's Day plans have eluded you so far, a local charity group is now selling tickets to a dinner and dance that's sure to strike a romantic chord.

The annual fundraising event, held by the Milton council of the Knights of Columbus, will take place at Granite Ridge Golf Club on Dublin Line on Saturday, Feb. 14.

The evening will begin with cocktails at 6 p.m., dinner at 7 p.m. and dancing until midnight.

Guests will be taken care of with a scrumptious meal and after-dinner musical entertainment featuring James Doolin and the Mob.

Organizers say this year's event is sure to be better than ever, particularly after having to move to a bigger location due to popular demand.

"This year's event will feature a wonderful, four-course dinner in the comfort and elegance of the banquet room at Granite Ridge, overlooking the Niagara Escarpment," said organizer Daniel Varanelli.

Tickets cost $65 each. The meal will start with a pasta dish, followed by salad, a main course of filet mignon and dessert. Two bottles of wine per table will be included.

In addition, there will be a number of door prizes and a silent auction with items generously donated by local merchants and businesses.

All profits from this event will be distributed in the community.

James Doolin and the Mob is an 11-piece band that includes a lead male singer, three-piece horn section, three female singers and a four-piece rhythm section. Besides some of the old favourites, the band will also perform a Motown show.

Doolin has fronted various Toronto bands and has a wealth of experience behind him.

The Niagara-based band recently took to the stage for a New Year's Eve show at Casino Niagara and performs at a variety of venues and events.

The Knights of Columbus is a church-based, fraternal organization. Its local group has supported numerous events including the Milton Santa Claus Parade, Canada Day festivities and the Milton Fall Fair, donating more than $20,000 each year to local charities and community organizations.

Tickets are available by contacting Varanelli at (905) 875-4940 or Daniel@holynosaryknights.ca. They can also be purchased at the office of Holy Rosary Catholic Church, 139 Martin St., by cash or cheque. Tables of eight or 10 people can be accommodated. Tickets won't be available at the door.

People who take first aid training reduce their personal injuries by up to 30%.
