PROSPERITY ONE
Financial Service Officer Acton/Georgetown

Prosperity ONE has been serving the Halton community since 1957. With nearly 11,000 members and locations in Acton, Burlington, Milton and Georgetown, Prosperity ONE has more than $300 million in financial products under administration. We are dedicated to providing our members with a full range of financial and "value-added" products delivered through quality personal service. We currently have two opportunities available for proactive, goal oriented and results driven team players in our Acton and Georgetown Branches.

1. Full-time Financial Service Officer - Acton Branch
2. Part-time Financial Service Officer - Georgetown Branch (20 hours/week including extended hours)

You will actively market the organization's products and services; you will promote and cross sell the full range of lending and investment products; you will act as a liaison between the members and other related departments. You will proactively solicit all membership growth opportunities and participate in all branch promotions and marketing campaigns. You will maintain a high profile and image with your members and any outside contacts as well as play an active role in the communities we serve.

Qualified applications require 3 years of personal banker experience, a solid understanding of retail credit and investment products including a Mutual Fund licence. We think all candidates; however, only those to be interviewed will be contacted. No Phone Calls. Please apply in confidence, to: search@prosperityone.ca
