

Vending machines, safe broken into

• from POLICE on page A8
time between 1 and 5:30 a.m., police said.
Once inside, he damaged and broke into several vending machines and also a small safe. He unsuccessfully attempted to gain access to the ATM machine.
About $1,500 in cash was stolen, with damage to the building over and above that amount.

Harassment charge laid

A woman faces charges in connection with a series of alleged stalker-like incidents against a Milton man. Police said between March of 2008 and this month, someone who appeared to be obsessed with the victim — who didn't know the suspect — made hundreds of unwanted phone calls to his home and showed up at his residence several times.

A 33-year-old Toronto woman has been charged with criminal harassment.

Vehicle broken into

Property was stolen last week from an unlocked vehicle at the Loblaw Superstore on Main Street. Police said unknown suspects entered the vehicle sometime overnight February 17 and made off with a black and silver Dell Latitude laptop worth $1,500.

Car vandalized

A vehicle parked in a Laurier Avenue driveway was vandalized February 18 at about 3 a.m. Police said the owner of the 2000 Dodge Nitro awoke to the car's alarm. He discovered a window had been smashed and there were scratches to the passenger door.

The damage is estimated at $700.

Vehicle vandalized

A vehicle parked behind Bruce Trail Public School on Costigan Road was damaged overnight Saturday. Police said unknown suspects smashed the two rear windows of the Chevrolet Astro van, causing about $200 in damage.
