

Man charged in break-and-enter of home

A local man has been charged with breaking into a Roseheath Drive home after a neighbour observed what seemed to be suspicious activity.

Police said a resident saw a couple of males leaving a nearby house, carrying some property at about 9:40 a.m. They left in a vehicle and the resident recorded the licence plate and passed the information along to the homeowner, who called police. An arrest was made later that day.

A 24-year-old Woodward Avenue man has been charged with break and enter as well as possession of stolen property, a controlled substance and a dangerous weapon.

Trucks stolen; one recovered

Two tractor-trailers were stolen from a local business early Monday morning.

Police said the thefts occurred sometime between midnight and 4 a.m. at Lawburn Transport on Esquesing Line. Both were Freightliner tractors — one a 1999 model, one 1996 — worth about $20,000 each.

One of the vehicles was recovered abandoned a short time later by Cambridge OPP at a rest stop along Hwy. 401.

Neighbour chases down suspicious duo

Police are looking for two suspects after a man attempted to chase down what he believed were a couple of potential car thieves.

Police said the man was returning to his Marks Street home just before 4 a.m. February 26 when he noticed some activity around his neighbour's vehicle. He ran after two fleeing men, but didn't catch them.

Police arrived to find there was some damage to the vehicle indicating a break-in was attempted.

The two suspects are described as white males, slim, about six feet, wearing dark clothing.

Vehicles stopped; charges laid

Two vehicles were pulled over within 30 minutes of each other Sunday, with driving-related charges laid in both incidents.

At about 4:50 a.m., police noticed a vehicle speeding and swerving on Main Street, where it ran a red light. The vehicle was pulled over at Bronte Street. A 24-year-old Mississauga man has been charged with impaired driving and 'over 80.'

At 5:20 a.m., a vehicle observed driving erratically southbound on Ontario Street from Main Street was pulled over. A 20-year-old Oakville man has been charged with breach of probation and driving while disqualified.

Police respond to domestic call

Police were called to a home February 25 around 9 p.m. in response to a report of a domestic disturbance between a couple.

A 37-year-old Milton man has been charged with assault.

New appliances swiped

Appliances were stolen from a recently-completed house on Maquire Terrace sometime between February 26 and Saturday.

Police said an unknown suspect took a new fridge, stove and dishwasher from the house, which wasn't occupied.

The appliances are valued at $3,000.

Money stolen

Three employees of Dollarama on Nipissing Road reported money was stolen from their purses last Friday, police said.
