

GRAHAM PAINE / CANADIAN CHAMPION

Students shine at festival

Students from two school bands recently showcased their musical skills with noteworthy results.

At the Golden Horseshoe Music Festival in Ancaster, students in the W. I. Dick concert and jazz bands won two "silver plus" awards, giving them passage to the May 19 provincial semifinals in Markham.

"There is a long tradition of our students participating in this festival and doing well," said proud music teacher Paul Mouradian.
