

CH to host fundraising gala May 13

The environment will be the beneficiary of an upcoming fundraising gala.

The Conservation Halton Foundation (CHF) and the Credit Valley Conservation Foundation have joined together to host the fourth annual Conservation Gala Dinner and Auction Wednesday, May 13 at Rattlesnake Point Golf and Country Club on Regional Road 25.

"Despite our tough economic times, we are finding that people are excited about supporting a good cause and making our environment better," said Jim Faught, CHF chair.

The Conservation Gala will feature a gourmet meal with Ontario VQA wines and a live and silent auction. Items up for bid include a Tobermory cottage getaway and a four-day ski package to Banff.

Gala tickets cost $125 each or $1,200 for a table of 10. A partial tax receipt is provided.

Proceeds will support environmental education programs that help local students learn about clean water, renewable energy and species at risk by engaging them in hands-on restoration initiatives.

The first three galas raised more than $215,000 for environmental projects and education.

For tickets, call Terri LeRoux at (905) 670-1615, ext. 247, or Brian Hobbs at (905) 336-1158, ext. 255.
