

FIELDING SUPPORT FOR A GOOD CAUSE:

Early-season snag for Sr. Sox

A15 • MILTON CHAMPION Wednesday, June 10, 2009

Continuing to struggle at the plate, the Senior Red Sox dropped their third straight game Monday — getting toppled 7-4 by the host Oakville As.

Veteran shortstop Taylor Lawton's bases-clearing single was about the only real bright spot of the night, as Milton collected a modest six hits and fell to 4-6 on the season.

Steve Lauzon and Kevin Greer had two hits apiece, while Ian Zettle bore the brunt of the damage on the hill — giving up five runs on nine hits through the first three-and-two-thirds innings.

With their bats rather quiet in Etobicoke

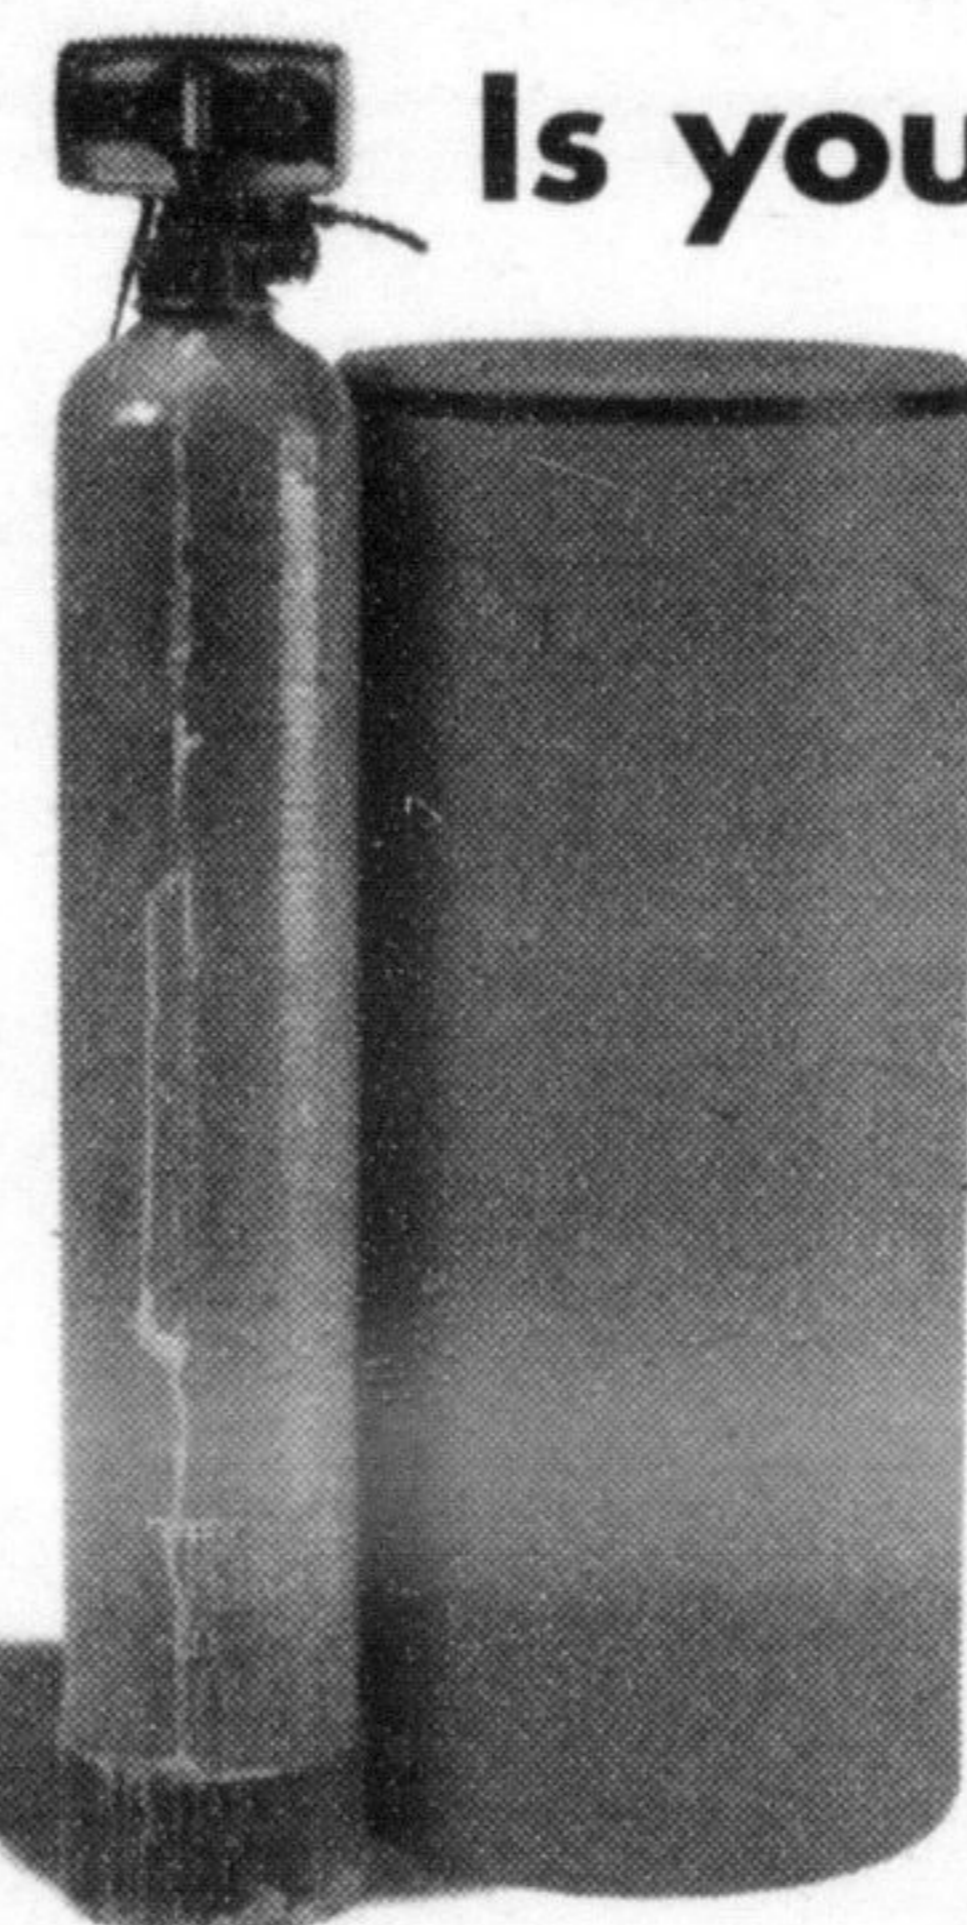

Friday evening, the Red Sox surrendered the winning run with two outs in the bottom of the ninth as the Rangers prevailed 2-1.

Greer drove in the lone run for Milton, while reliever Mike Grabauskas took the loss after holding off the hosts with a pair of strikeouts in the eighth.

The Red Sox hope to rekindle their offensive spark this weekend, when they compete at the Oshawa Tournament.

They're back at Brian Best Park Saturday, June 20 for a double-header against Brampton. Game one starts at noon.
