

AE peewees in hunt for OMHA advancement

Will need help from other teams to clinch playdown berth

The additional entry (AE) peewee Winterhawks' OMHA fate is going down to the wire.

Keeping themselves in quarterfinal contention with a scoreless stalemate in Brampton Saturday night to close out round-robin play, Milton now sits tied with the Battalion with seven points apiece — with Orangeville just one point behind.

Brampton will take first by virtue of their earlier 5-3 win over the Winterhawks, who'll needed Orangeville to lose to Flamborough last night in order to lock up second and keep their OMHA run going.

An Orangeville-Flamborough tie would set up a one-game tiebreaker for the berth to a best-of-three series to determine who takes the final spot in the quarterfinals.

Josh McMillan stood tall in regulation and overtime to pull out the draw in Brampton, while the Winterhawks' round-robin wins have come in 6-1 and 5-4 (OT) decisions over Flamborough and a 2-1 squeaker against Orangeville.

Noah Dunley and Tyler Gibbs have led playoff scoring with four goals each. Cameron Gulley has potted three goals and four other players have dented the twine at least once.

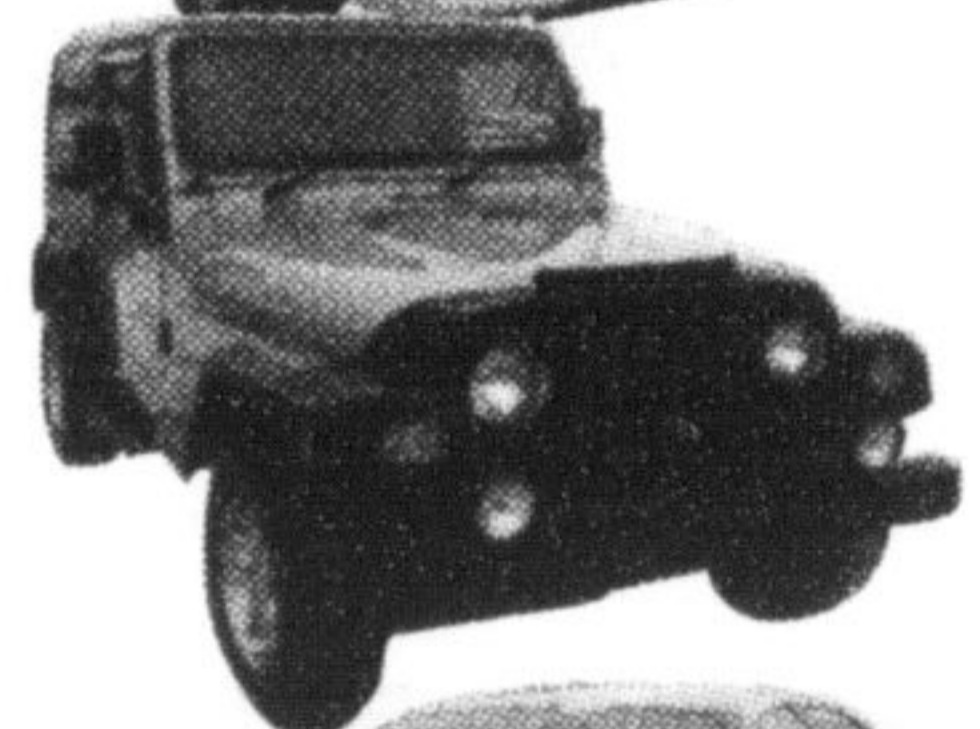

The AE peewees are coming off their best-ever season, finishing fifth in Tri County's Harrison Division with a record of 13-9-6.
