

Showcase registration open

Room for 120 vendors

Calling all business moms.

Vendor registrations are now being accepted for the Spring 2011 Milton Mompreneur Showcase.

Spaces will be reserved on a first-come, first-serve basis for the Saturday, Apr. 30 event at Memorial Arena, with room available for 120 vendors.

There will also be limited space for sponsorship opportunities.

The event will feature a wide variety of businesses run by mothers in Milton and across the GTA.

Admission will be free to those bringing a monetary or non-perishable food item donation in support of Halton Women's Place and the Santa Caruana Music Scholarship Fund.

The showcase will include more than $3,000 in giveaways and raffle prizes.

To register or for more information about the show, visit www.MiltonMompreneurs.com.

Hispanic association to meet

A Nobel Prize winning laureate will be the focus when the Halton-Peel Hispanic Association holds its first literary event of the year.

It's slated for Friday, Feb. 18 at Hugh Foster Hall, where the works of Peruvian author, politician, essayist and journalist Mario Vargas Llosa will be discussed.

Doing the honours will be guest speaker Dr. Arturo Victoriano, a law course instructor at the University of Toronto's Mississauga campus, whose research interests include Haitians in Dominican literature and gender and power dynamics as represented in literature, film, songs and mass media.

Entitled 'Encuentros con la cultura,' (Encounter with the culture) the presentation runs from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Hugh Foster Hall is located at 141 King St., beside Town Hall.

Ladies' pajama party coming up

Throw on those PJs, ladies. It's party time.

The Red and White Pajama Party — for ladies only — in support of the Halton MS Society chapter will be held Friday, Feb. 18 at the Best Western Inn from 6:30 to 11 p.m.

Special room rates are available for those who want to make it an all-nighter.

Along with dinner catered by Troy's Bar and Grill, music and a cash bar, the evening will include a variety of loonie and toonie games.

For tickets, which cost $25, or more information, call Michelle at (905) 681-8770, ext. 12, or send an email to michelle.kingson@mssociety.ca.

Fundraiser Feb. 19 to feature all-star Toronto Argonaut cornerback Parker

Scribble n' Splatter: Expressive Play Studios will flex more than just its artistic muscles later this month.

The local arts studio — for children six months to 12 years of age — will partner with Be The Game Sportswear Inc. for a kids programming fundraiser Saturday, Feb. 19.

A wide variety of kids games and arts activities will be held from noon to 4 p.m., during which visitors young and old can get an autograph from Toronto Argos all-star cornerback Byron Parker.

There'll also be a chance to win prizes, while Be The Game merchandise will be on sale, with proceeds going to fund the extracurricular activities of underprivileged families.

Scribble n' Splatter is located at 342 Bronte St. S., Unit 19.

Heart-shaped pizza fundraiser Mon.

Boston Pizza's heart-filled Valentine's Day fundraiser is back.

On Monday, Miltonians can enjoy a heart-shaped pizza at the Maple Avenue restaurant, with $1 from each going to the Boston Pizza Foundation, which supports such charities as the Heart and Stroke Foundation and Kids Help Phone.

Patrons can also purchase red paper hearts for $1 and write a Valentine's message to someone special.

The paper hearts will be posted throughout the restaurant.

The heart-shaped pizzas will be available for both dine-in and take-out, with the local restaurant hoping to raise $1,000 this year as part of the chain's nation-wide target of $600,000.
