

Charity bonspiel aids Lupus foundation

Eighth annual event raises $5,500

A fundraising bonspiel recently rocked the house for a good cause.

more than $5,500, exceeding last year's goal.

Celebrating its eighth year, the 16-team event was once again organized by Kate Sherwood in memory of her friend Milly Beduh, who passed away from Lupus in 2003.

"The results were spectacular," said Sherwood, "I'm thankful to all those volunteers who supported the bonspiel."

Lupus is a chronic disease caused by inflammation in one or more parts of the body and is part of the family of diseases that includes rheumatoid arthritis, multiple sclerosis, juvenile diabetes and scleroderma.
