

Third suspect is charged in assault on truck driver

A third suspect wanted in connection with an assault on a truck driver in a Milton parking lot last week has been charged by Halton police.

The 36-year-old Brampton man was wanted on charges of assault with a weapon, uttering death threats, mischief under $5,000, weapons dangerous and pointing a firearm.

He was held for a bail hearing Thursday.

Police were called to the Petro Canada parking lot at 7548 Trafalgar Rd. June 13 at 5 a.m. after a man was assaulted while trying to move his truck through the parking lot.

The attackers — who were reportedly armed with a silver/black handgun and baseball bat — climbed up onto the driver and passenger sides of the tractor unit, smashed out both windows and forced the victim into his sleeper cab.

The victim wasn't injured.

Police believe passing motorists interrupted the assault, forcing the attackers to flee the scene.

Also in connection with the assault, a 37-year-old Brampton man has been charged with conspiracy to commit an indictable offence and a 38-year-old Mississauga man has been charged with assault with a weapon, uttering death threats, mischief under $5,000 and weapons dangerous.

Roaming cow caught in area field

Milton's roaming cow problem has been resolved.

Spotted several times wandering in the south rural Milton area since late May — and causing more than a few concerns for motorists — the cow was apprehended without incident in a field near Regional Road 25 and Britannia Road Thursday.

The cow was caught by a private company from Waterloo, which has taken custody of the animal — described as brown and white, with horns — until the owner can be found.

Police are asking the owner or anyone who may know who the owner is to call (905) 825-4747, ext. 2410, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).

#1 NUMBER ONE FOR A REASON

Toyota has won more 2011 Canadian Black Book Best Retained Value awards for trucks than any other manufacturer.

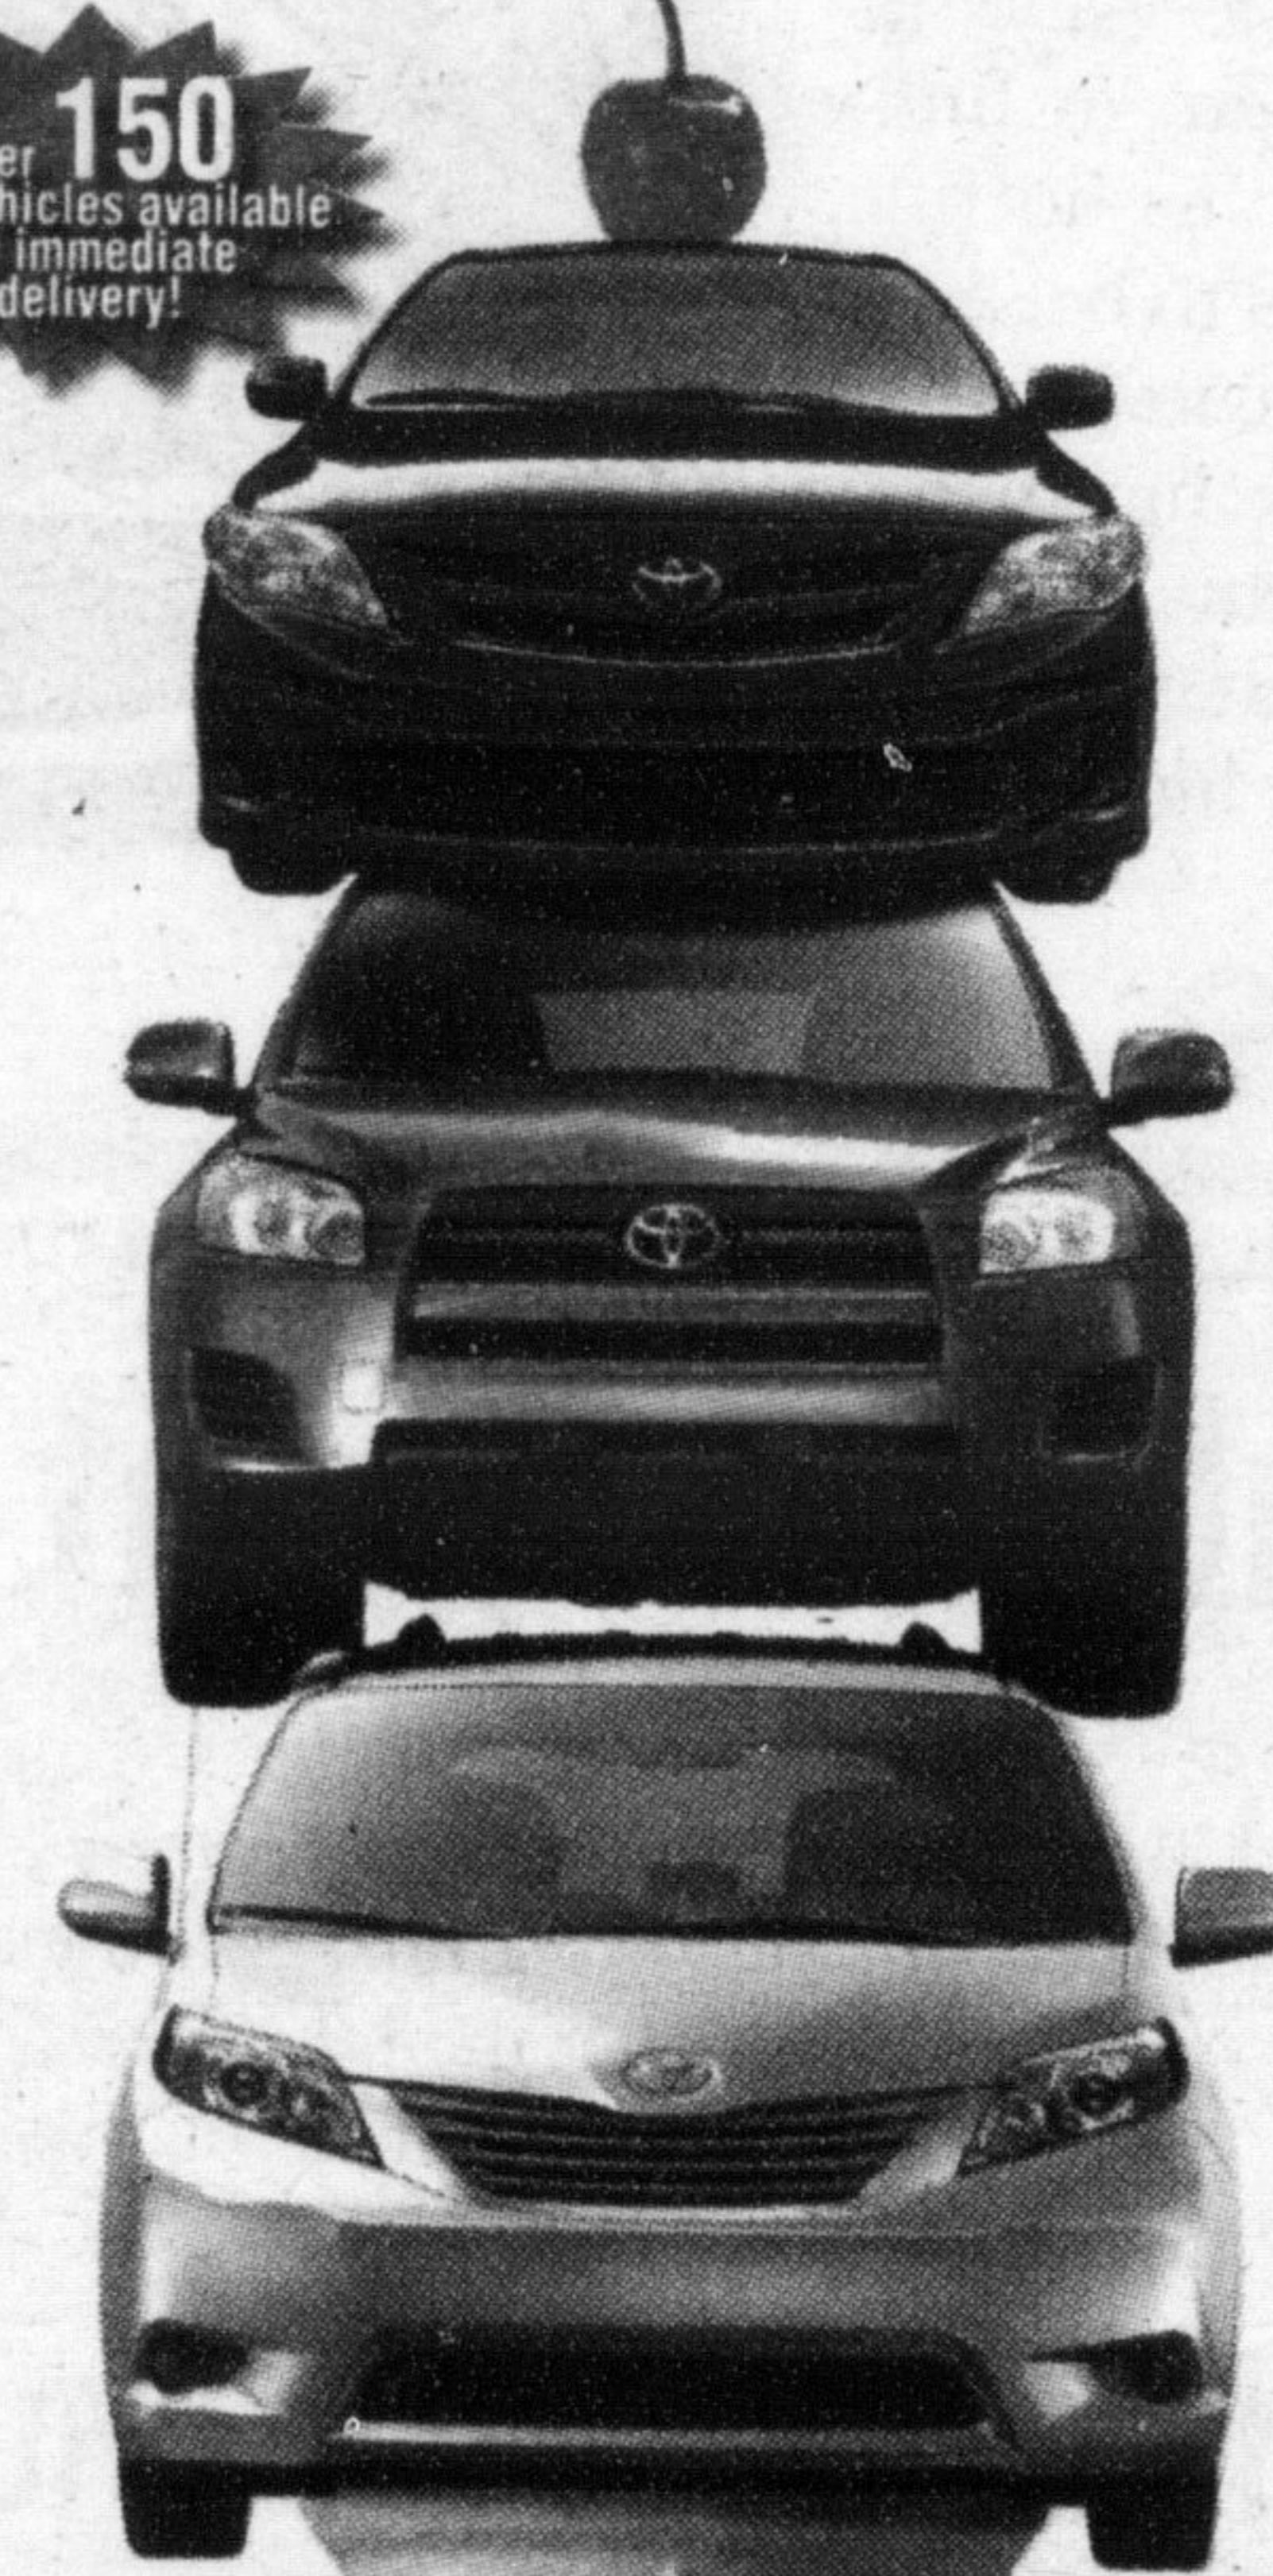

The Toyota Corolla has the lowest cost of ownership over 10 years.

Based upon 2011 independent 3rd party automotive research company study looking at fuel costs, depreciation costs and maintenance costs for base model Corolla and comparative compact vehicles 2001-2010. Actual cost of ownership may vary.

Based on value retained from original MSRP for 2007 model year vehicle as published by Canadian Black Book, as of January 2011.

- 1 Based on 2010 year end manufacturers' self-reported passenger car sales.
- 2 Based on most recent Transport Canada Company Average Fuel Consumption (CAFC) for passenger cars. CAFC number is a manufacturer's sales-weighted fuel consumption average for all vehicles sold in its fleet. For fuel consumption ratings for a specific vehicle, please refer to Toyota.ca.
- 3 Based on value retained from original MSRP for 2007 model year vehicle as published by CBB, as of 1 January 2011.
