

Mark's Run ALS Charity Poker Ride to start in town Aug. 6

Several hundred motorcycle enthusiasts are expected to congregate at Milton's Hardball Café Saturday, Aug. 6 at 11 a.m. before setting out on Mark's Run ALS Charity Poker Ride.

Participants will ride to locations in the Milton, Guelph, Halton Hills and Burlington areas to collect playing cards from individuals affected by ALS. Those who return with the best hand will win one of many prizes donated by local area businesses.

"We'll be riding in memory of my cousin, friend and riding buddy, Mark," said John Thompson, event organizer and longtime biker enthusiast. "Mark was diagnosed with ALS in 2006 and after that I watched him go from being one of the most full-of-life people I know to being restricted to a wheelchair, unable to move, eat or even communicate. Before he lost his ability to speak, he asked me to ride for him whenever I go out. I promised him I would but really wanted to do something special. So I organized Mark's Run to give back to ALS Ontario and haven't looked back since."

An unofficial goodwill ride was held last August and attracted more than 100 bikers from across southern Ontario.

This year's ride will be followed by a barbeque, live music and silent auction.

"I'm once again challenging bikers to get out there and enjoy the freedom of the open road, the grinding and carving of corners and the camaraderie of friends. I'm challenging them to ride for Mark and raise money to support those living with ALS and their families in our community," said Thompson.

The run is open to anyone with a motorbike and costs $25 to register per bike or a minimum of $100 in pledges. Proceeds will go to ALS Ontario to help provide support and care services to people living with the disease.

More information about the ride, including instruction on how to register, can be found at www.marksrn.ca.
