Golf tournament for OAD

The Ontario Association of the Deaf is ready to get in the swing of things, with the return of its annual charity golf tournament.

Slated for next Thursday at the Royal Ontario Golf Club (6378 Trafalgar Rd.), the knickers-themed tournament is open to members of both the hearing and Deaf communities.

The tourney will get underway with a

1:30 p.m. shotgun start. Golfers are encouraged to dress in their most stylish knickers or other old-fashioned outfits.

Admission costs $200 per player. This includes dinner, prizes and the chance to win a $50,000 hole-in-one jackpot.

To register or for more information about the tourney, visit www.deafontario.ca or call (416) 413-9191.
