Online auction wraps up soon

This weekend marks your last chance to place bids in the Milton Rotary Club's online auction.

The auction, which has more than $17,000 worth of items and services that have been donated, will conclude Sunday.

Among the items being auctioned are Toronto Maple Leafs' tickets, golf packages and a package from the Milton Fire Department that includes a fire extinguisher, smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, an escape ladder and a 'Home Safe Home' visit by fire-fighters.

Anyone interested in bidding can go to www.rotaryauctions.ca and click on the Milton link.

All funds raised in Milton will help the local Rotary Club support charitable projects in the community.

Last year the Rotary Club of Milton raised $10,000 through the auction.

Hopefully ideas will be realized cussing our own experiences with housing in Halton.

Affordable housing isn't just a necessity for those on Ontario Works or those with minimum-wage jobs. New graduates coming back to Halton after university, young couples looking to buy their first home, or seniors looking to downsize are also on the prowl for more affordable units.

In many cases, Halton just isn't a viable option for homeowners or renters on a budget. Most of the time they're forced to look elsewhere.

The hundreds of students who participated in the contest understand the need for housing for all, and hopefully their inspired ideas will one day come to fruition.
