Fellow pre-teens Arshia Chaudhry and John Said also stood out for the club.

Carter Janssen had a goal and an assist, while Tyler Potvin also found the back of the net.

Ethan Ivany picked up two helpers.

These sweeps book-ended an impressive showing for the local club, which consistently placed top three throughout the competition.

Chaudhry placed first in sparring, despite having to battle a 10-year-old second degree blackbelt boy, because there were no girls in her nine-and-10-year-old red to black belt division.
