Facility to be used as feed mill

struction — incompatible with the architectural diversity in terms of size and detailing that owners wanted of us," he said.

Though the Town of Milton had expressed possible interest in relocating the warehouse, located on Tremaine Road south of Derry Road, for use as an indoor turf facility for sports such as soccer, lacrosse, softball and baseball, that deal appears to be dead, according to Town staff.

Mattamy has taken another offer for the facility from a company that wants to use it as a feed mill, staff said.

Challenge continues until fall

• from DARLING on page A2

The Darling Home accepts kids and teens up to 18 years old for stays up to a week long, giving parents a rest and the kids a great experience.

A variety of therapeutic programs at the home includes recreation, music, pets and hydrotherapy.

Clerici's and Cummings' generosity means The Darling Home is now in the final stretch of fundraising for its $3 million capital campaign for its Phase 2 expansion project, which in addition to the new wing includes the creation of a family room, a multi-purpose room, an expanded kitchen and a multi-sensory therapy room.

But there's still $500,000 left to raise.

Enter the Build a Wall Challenge, which was launched at the dedication.

Through the challenge, which will continue until the fall, community members and businesses can raise money and collect sponsors to purchase "bricks" at a cost of $25 each or three for $50. A gift of $100 purchases five bricks and mortar, and $250 buys 15 bricks and mortar.

On-line, residents can participate either individually or as a team, creating donation web pages and fundraising.

Or they can simply go on-line and make a general donation toward the campaign.

There are 8,400 bricks available for purchase, and the goal is to raise at least $100,000.

"I hope the Milton community will embrace this as an opportunity to get involved," said Darling Home for Kids chair Anita Boyce, adding it's a great thing for children to do as well.
