Young Marlin dominates at team championships

One hundred metres proved to be a favourable distance for the Marlins at the recent Central Region Team Championships.

That was especially true for their youngest representative.

Collecting the bulk of the club's points at the Etobicoke Olympian, eight-year-old Collyn Gagne was golden in the nine-and-under boys' 100-metre breaststroke and 100m individual medley.

The same distance earned him third-place honours in both the freestyle and backstroke, while his 100m butterfly performance was good enough for sixth.

Milton had one other medalist in Luka Tesla, who highlighted the weekend with a bronze in the 10-and-11-year-old boys' 100m free. He'd also take fifth in the 100m backstroke.

Nathan Chasse and Logan Edwards each came away with a sixth-place finish — in the 10-and-11-year-old boys' 100m breaststroke and 12-and-13-year-old boys' 100m free.

Ten other local swimmers — including Chrisleah Joie Andrade, Kayla Besik, Samantha Chase, Macrae Hewitt, Sarah Johnston, Vasil Kecheliev, Michael Rudd, Connor Smiley, Emma Swan and Brandon Tran — also contributed points to the overall tally.

Up next for the Marlins is this weekend's Ontario Junior Long-Course Championships in London.
