

Record-breaking performance earns Burke gold

Brent Burke broke his own Milton Marlins club record to win the 15-and-over boys' 200-metre breaststroke at the Long Course Junior Provincial Championships in London.

Burke posted the best time in the preliminaries but he knocked more than three seconds off the club record to win with a time of two minutes, 31.53 seconds. That eclipsed his previous mark of 2:34.71, set in April of 2008.

Burke also earned a silver medal in the 100m breaststroke with a time of 1:09.38.

Quincy Brozo earned three medals and three more top-10 finishes. She took first place in the 11-and-under girls' 200m freestyle with a time of 2:20.89. She added bronze medals in the 50m freestyle and the 200m individual medley. Brozo's top-10 finishes included a fourth in the 400m freestyle, a sixth in the 200m butterfly and a 10th in the 100m butterfly.

Connor Lewis placed second in the 11-and-under boys' 50m breaststroke and was fifth in the 100m breaststroke.

Colin Scarffe was sixth in the 14-year-old boys' 1,500m freestyle and Scott Davis was eighth in 14-year-old boys' 50m freestyle.

Paul Zielinski became the first Marlins' swimmer to crack the 30-second barrier in the 50m backstroke, breaking his own club record with a time of 29.95 in leading off Milton's 200m medley relay.

Also competing at provincials for the Marlins were Colm Whitford, Emily Morris, Christopher Leeder, Sarah Gillard and Alexander Davis.

Under-11 squad advances to semifinals

The Milton Modi Transport Boys Under-11 soccer team scored five times in the second half on its way to a 7-1 victory over Georgetown that secured the team a place in the semifinals of the South Region Soccer League Cup playoffs.

Michael Hunter led the way in Milton's victory, scoring four goals, while Matthew Mlinarevic, Mitchell Wiznuik and Jonathan Brooks added one apiece. Midfielders Chris Pelow, Christian Vandervoet, Kiran Uppal and Kellan Parent limited Georgetown's offensive opportunities as Milton maintained its place atop the standings with a 4-1 record.

The win was Milton's second over Georgetown in a week. Milton took the earlier match 2-1 with Jonathan Vaca providing the game-winning goal with five minutes to play. Hunter had the other Milton goal.

Matthew Ambrosioni turned in a strong performance in net, picking up the victory in both games.

Milton, which scored a 4-3 victory over Clarkson in the quarterfinals, will face either North Mississauga or Erin Mills in the semifinal on Sunday, Aug. 9.
