

Vice-President, Development

Working with the Foundation President & CEO, Board and Volunteers, you will lead the growth of the major gifts and gift planning programs while directing a large capital campaign.

In this position you will manage a team of fundraising professionals and coordinate the strategic involvement of our volunteer leaders to achieve ambitious revenue targets through relationship-building, fundraising and marketing techniques.

The successful candidate will have held increasingly senior roles in the charitable sector, including leadership of major gift and gift planning programs as well as managing and executing major, multi-million dollar fundraising campaigns.

Extensive experience in external relations and in working with high profile boards and donors will be pivotal to success in this position. A University degree is required. Experience in educational or healthcare philanthropy is a definite asset.

St. Joseph's Healthcare Foundation raises and stewards funds that are vital to fulfilling St. Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton's role as an exemplary academic health sciences centre devoted to research, education and compassionate care, consistent with the Sisters of St. Joseph of Hamilton's historic legacy of serving body, mind and spirit.

Please submit your application by July 29, 2009 to sharron@stjoesfoundation.ca with subject line: Vice-President, Development or fax to: 905.577.0860 or mail to:
