Man charged in robbery

PoliceBlotter

A Mississauga man faces charges in connection with a break-in and assault at a Main Street apartment this past summer.

On June 24 the apartment was broken into and a 54-year-old tenant was assaulted. Stolen were electronics, jewelry and a quantity of cash.

An investigation recently led to the arrest of a 26-year-old suspect, who's charged with break-and-enter to commit a robbery, disguise with intent, assault causing bodily harm, robbery and forcible confinement.

He was held for a bail hearing.

Theft attempted

Police are looking for two suspects after a man happened upon the attempted theft of his vehicle Tuesday.

The man was exiting the rear of a downtown Main Street restaurant at about 9:30 p.m. when he saw a male inside his vehicle, which was parked in the back lot, police said. Another suspect was standing nearby.

Both suspects took off when they saw the owner.

Police checked the area, but no suspects were apprehended.

Both suspects are described as white males wearing black jackets. One man wore jeans, while the second may have been wearing track pants.

Impaired driving charges laid

A 47-year-old Milton man was charged following a two-vehicle accident at Main and Ontario streets Friday afternoon.

At 3:45 p.m. police were called to the collision, and upon investigation arrested one of the drivers. He was charged with impaired driving and 'over 80.'

Vehicle stolen

A 1995 Plymouth Voyager was stolen from the GO Station on Main Street this week.

The theft occurred sometime between 8 a.m. Tuesday and 1 a.m. Wednesday.

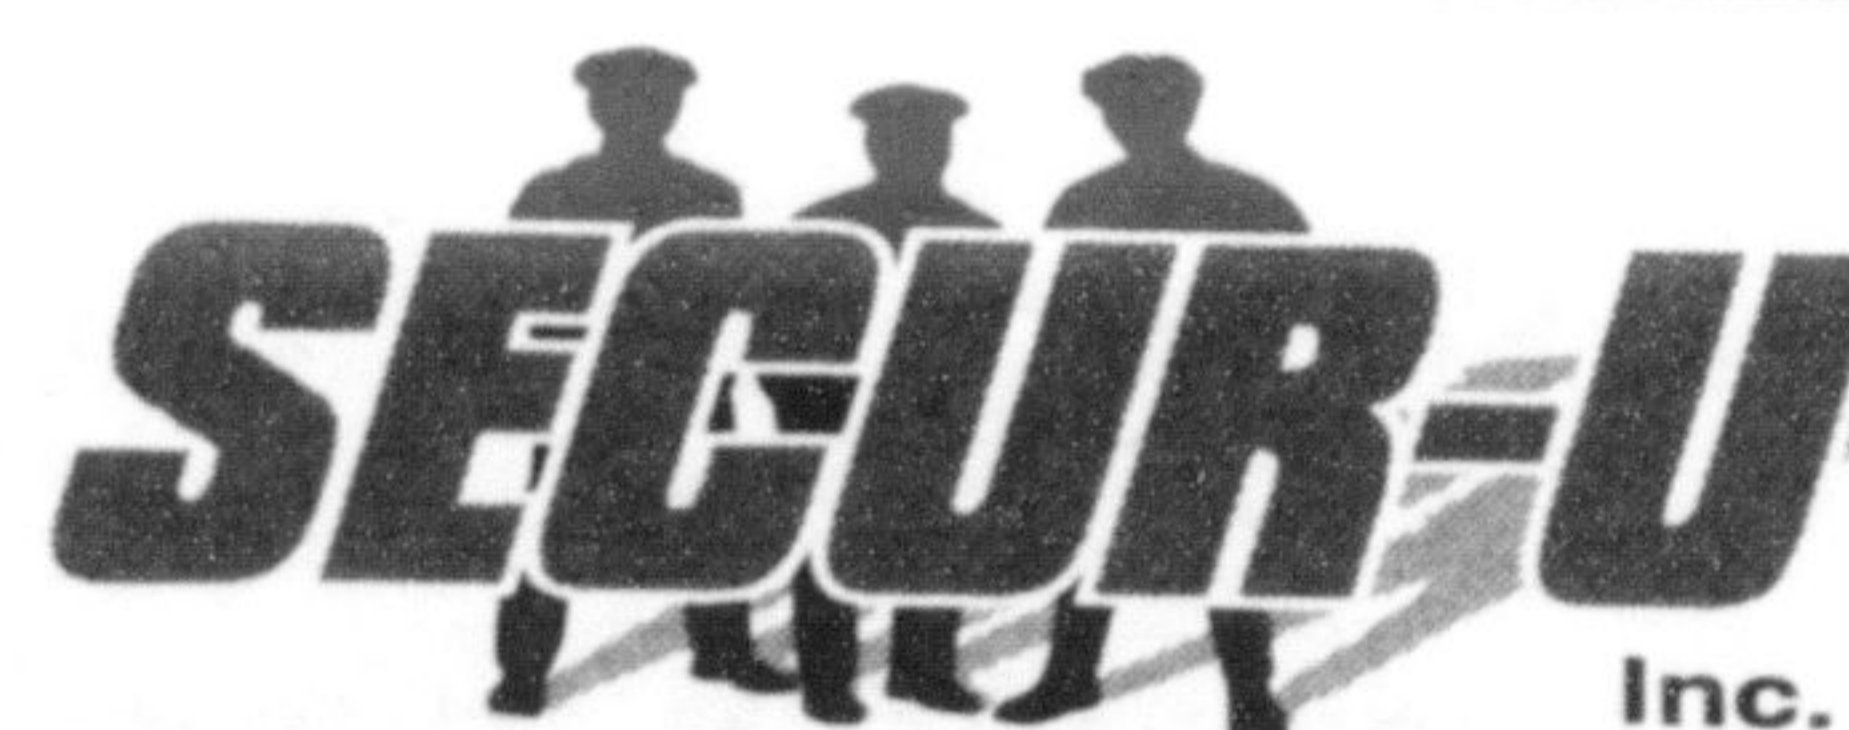

The vehicle, with a licence plate of ASEA 081, is valued at $4,000.

Vehicles targeted

Two vehicles parked at an Ontario Street apartment building were broken into overnight Monday.

Sometime between 7:30 and 11:30 p.m. Monday, unknown suspects smashed the window of a car and stole an iPod worth $250. The value of the damage is estimated at $200.

Between 5:30 p.m. Monday and 7:30 a.m. Tuesday, unknown suspects smashed a vehicle's window and grabbed a GPS device worth $300. About $250 in damage was caused.
