

Speakman and Huskies in CIS semis

St. Mary's hosts Calgary Dinos in UTeck Bowl in Halifax Sat.

One more hurdle and Todd Speakman will find himself on the national championship stage.

Now in his sophomore season at Nova Scotia's St. Mary's University, the 20-year-old Miltonian — a member of the special-teams unit — and his perennial powerhouse Huskies knocked off St. Francis Xavier 31-22 in Saturday's Loney Bowl AUS championship.

Ranked third nationally, St. Mary's will now host the No. 3 Calgary Dinos in the UTeck Bowl (Vanier Cup semifinals) Saturday in Halifax. A victory will earn them passage to the November 28 national championship in Laval, Que.

Squaring off in tomorrow's other semifinal are top-ranked Laval and OUA champion Queen's.

Speakman is a former standout receiver/safety with both Bishop Reding and the Halton Invictas.

See Friday's Champion for full results on Milton District's regional boys volleyball championship yesterday afternoon.
