Man arrested after stolen credit cards used

A Milton man has been charged in connection with credit card theft. Police said a suspect was arrested December 9 after cards stolen in October were used in local stores. A 20-year-old Milton man has been charged with two counts of credit card theft and four counts of using a stolen credit card.

Fake credit card used
 Police made an arrest after a counterfeit credit card was used at a store Sunday.

Police said a customer attempted to buy a computer from The Source at Milton Crossroads with a fraudulent credit card. Police were called.

A 33-year-old Kitchener man has been charged with possession of an unauthorized credit card and unauthorized use of credit card data.

Tools stolen
 A large number of tools were stolen overnight December 10 from a house under construction on Guelph Line.

Police said an unknown suspect took from a storage container various carpenters' tools including saws, generators and drills worth several thousands of dollars.

Car seats stolen
 Two vehicle seats were stolen from a car dealership overnight Monday.

Police said an unknown suspect entered the fenced Parkway Auto Trade business on Lawson Road and removed two grey leather front seats worth about $1,000 from a Chevrolet Tahoe.

Vehicle parts swiped
 Tires and rims were stolen from a vehicle parked overnight December 9 in the lot of an Alliance Road business.

Police said the vehicle was discovered sitting on cement blocks with all four tires and rims — worth about $1,000 — gone.

Suspects sought
 Police are looking for two suspects who were observed attempting to steal a lawn ornament from a Fifth Line home Sunday.

The two men were spotted at about 7 a.m. moving a red and yellow cast iron fire hydrant worth $500.

After about 25 feet, they dropped it and ran off, police said.

The first suspect wore a grey hooded sweatshirt with a black jacket.

There's no description of the second suspect.

Wallet stolen
 A wallet was stolen from an unlocked vehicle parked in a First Line driveway overnight December 10.

The wallet contained identification and credit cards.

Object strikes vehicle

Halton Regional Police are investigating damage to a vehicle.

Shortly after 7 p.m. Sunday, a woman driving a white, four-door Honda Civic was at the intersection of Pearl Street and Prince Street when suddenly her rear driver's side window shattered.

It's believed an object was thrown through the rear window. The driver wasn't hurt in the incident.

No suspect description is available at this time. The total loss is estimated at $500.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward. You will never have to give your name or testify in court. Crime Stoppers of Halton doesn't subscribe to call display. Call 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or visit www.halton-crimestoppers.com.
