

AA minor bantams' hopes for top-three finish hit snag

The AA minor bantams' bid for a top-three finish in Tri County's Bowen Division took a significant hit over the past week.

A loss and two ties dropped the Winterhawks to 10-6-7 on the season, and — with just five games remaining — means a January surge will be needed to move past the Oakville Rangers.

The neighbouring rivals battled to a 3-3 stalemate in Oakville

Sunday evening, with the Rangers clearly dominating this time around after Milton blanked them 2-0 just a few days earlier.

Anthony Henein had to come up big between the pipes for the Winterhawks to earn a point, while Sean Walter led offensively with two goals. Captain Ben Preisner was the other marksman and Marcus Miller had two assists.

The Winterhawks returned to Milton Sports Centre Tuesday night, hoping to make some headway against the top-seated Orangeville Flyers. But that wasn't to be, as the formidable visitors mounted a 4-0 lead en route to prevailing 5-2.

Milton needed a pair of late goals — by Walter and Miller — to make the verdict respectable.

The Winterhawks kicked off a three-games-in-four-nights stretch with a 1-1 tie in Caledon Saturday. Miller was the lone marksman.

The AA minor bantams close out 2009 at the Oakville Richard Bell Tournament over the holidays.

Huge win keeps AE minor bantams' unbeaten streak going

Milton's AE minor bantams extended their unbeaten streak to seven games in Caledon Wednesday evening, trouncing the Hawks 7-1.

Dominating from start to finish and enjoyed a rock-solid effort from netminder Ryan Moore, the Winterhawks improved to 10-7-5 with the decisive victory, which moved them into a tie with Brampton for third in Tri County's Harrison Division.

Quinn Strychaluk led the way with a hat-trick, while Lucas

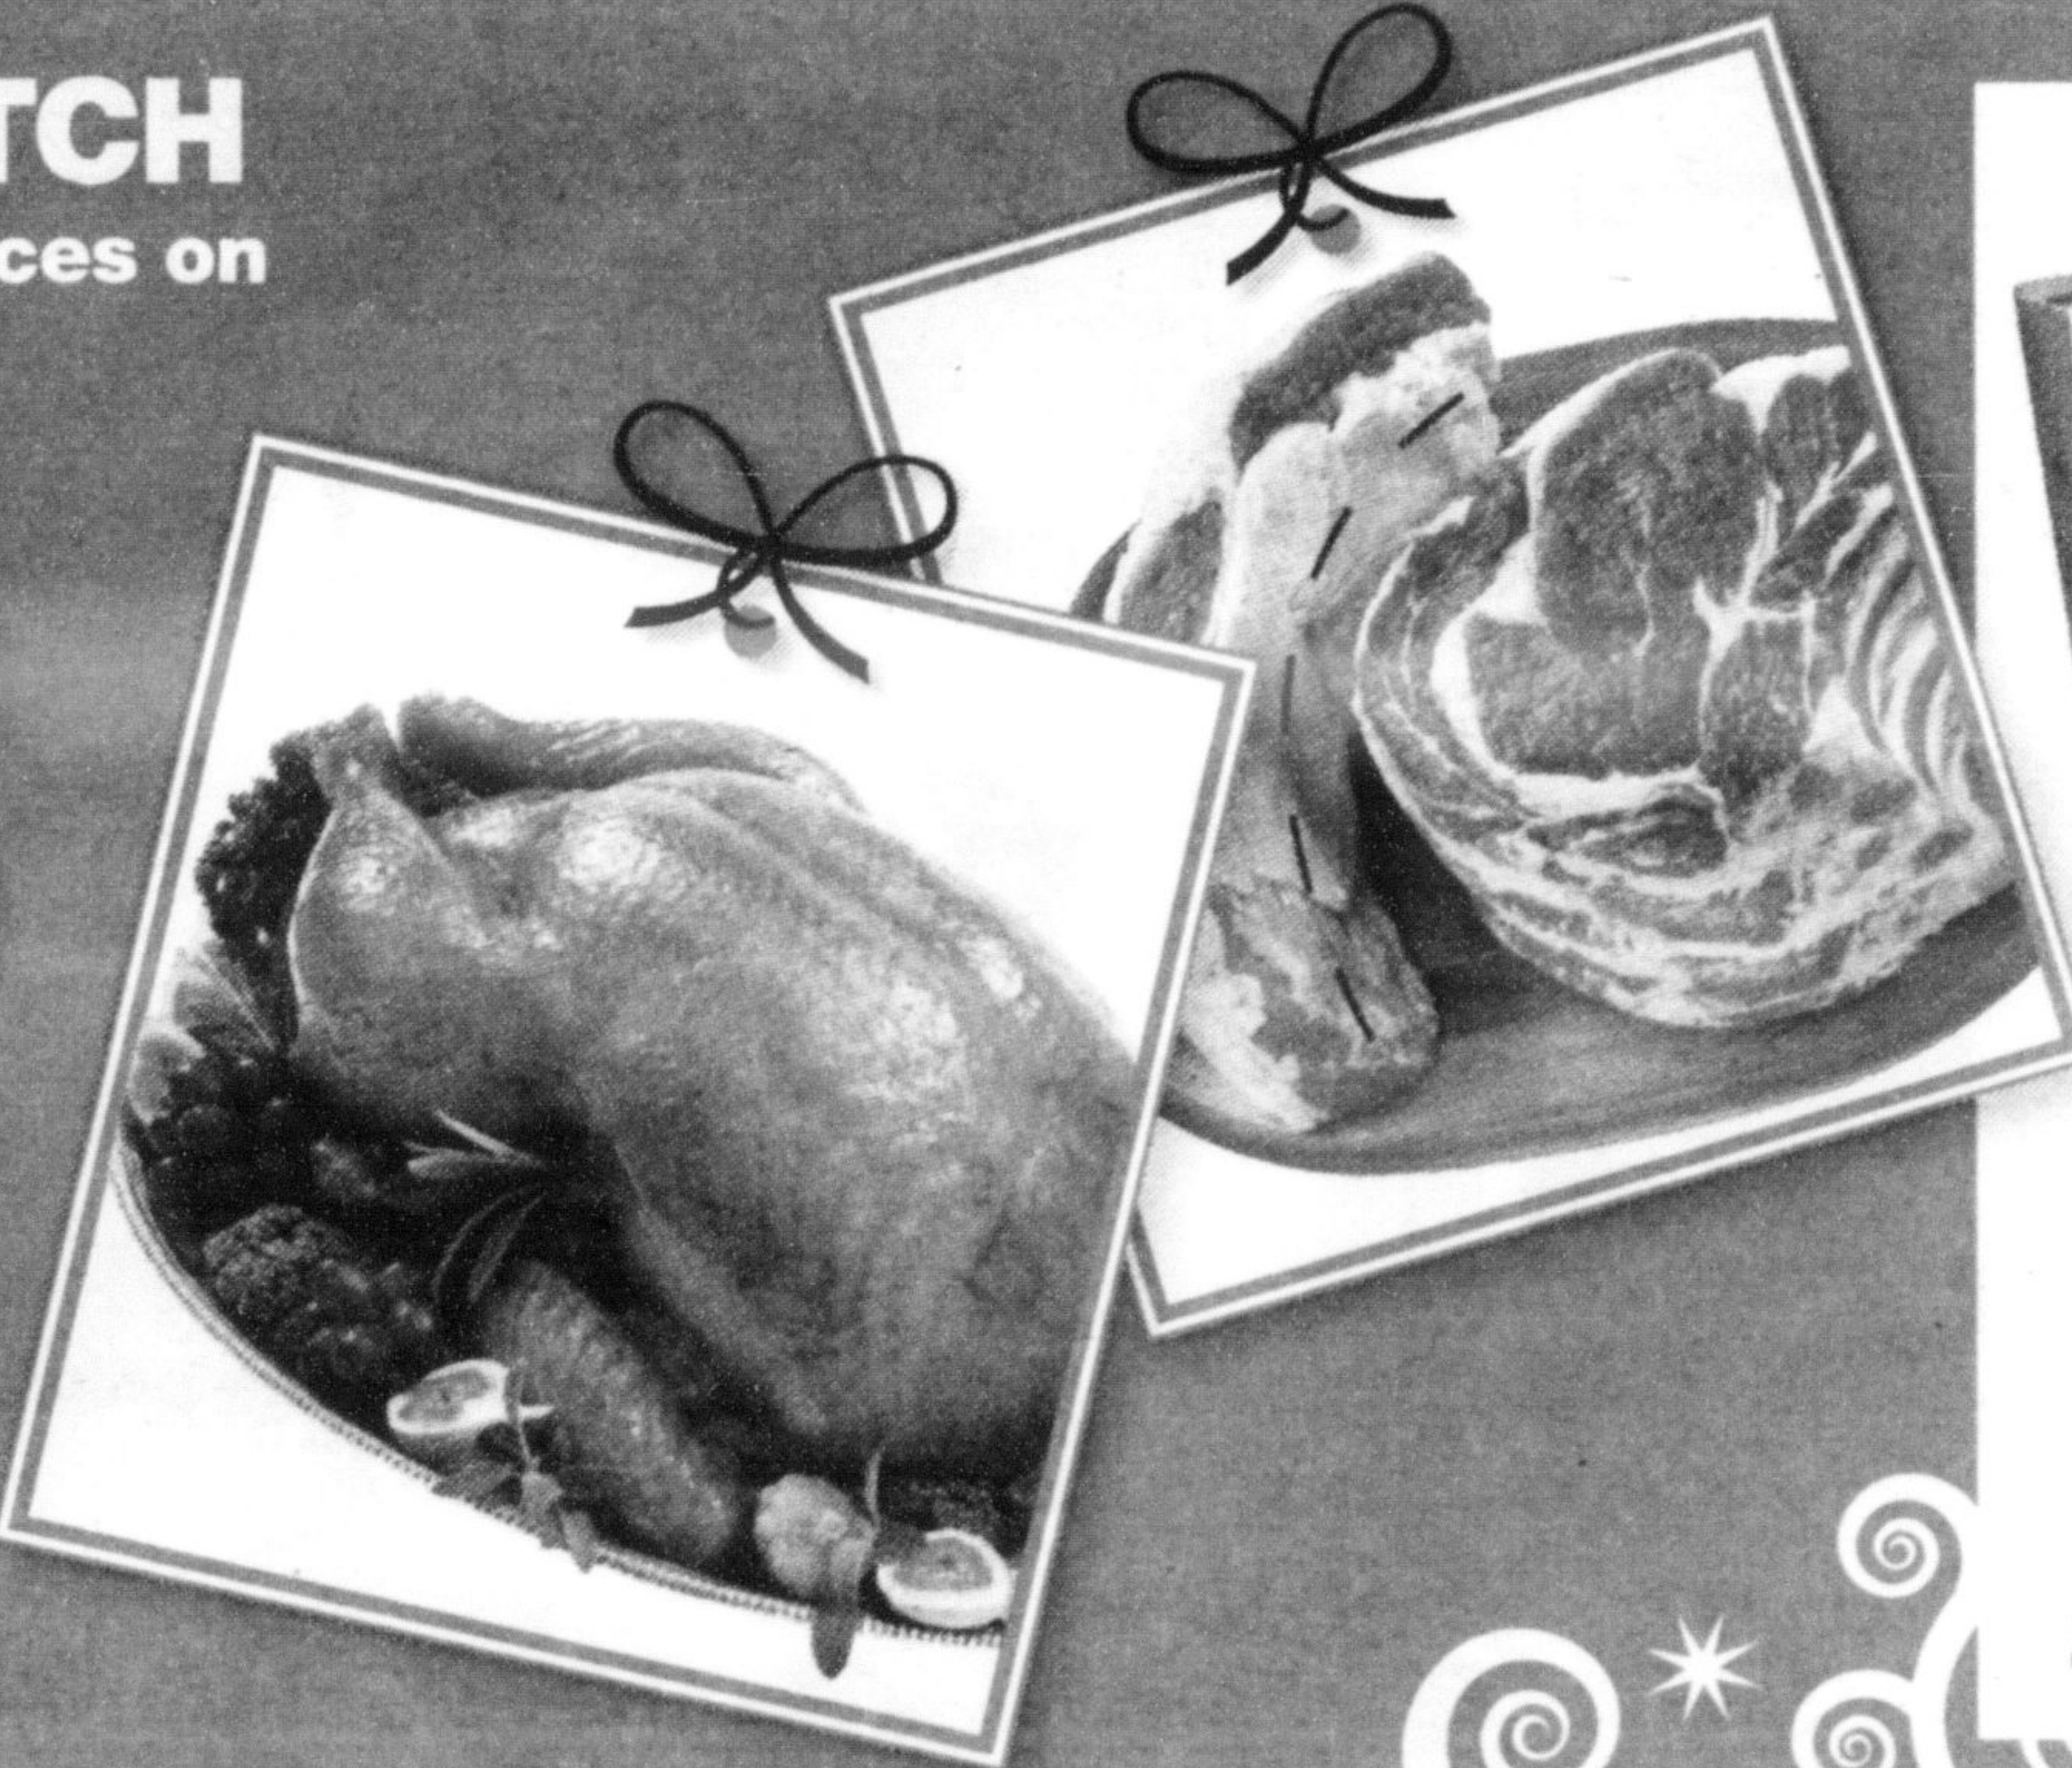

Accettola had a goal and two assists and counting a goal and a helper were Akshay Kapoor. Rounding out the scoring were Alex Vos and Adam Wilson, with two-assist nights registered by Joey DePaiva and Marcus Kotyk.

Milton will be hard-pressed to keep its undefeated run going tomorrow at Memorial Arena, with second-place Oakville providing the opposition for a 2:30 p.m. start that kicks off a three-games-in-four-days stretch.
