Productive weekend for Haydar

Darren Haydar

Darren Haydar once again finds himself among the American Hockey League's top-10 scorers, following a productive home-and-home series against the Toronto Marlies.

The 30-year-old Miltonian — now an assistant captain with the Lake Erie Monsters (affiliate of Colorado Avalanche) — kicked things up with two early goals and an assist on a late insurance tally in Saturday's 4-2 win.

From there, he delivered another two-goal, one-assist performance — his fourth multi-point effort in the past six games — in a 7-0 rout at Ricoh Coliseum Sunday.

Haydar now sits tied for ninth in league scoring with 15 goals and 16 assists in 32 games.

The weekend sweep pushed Lake Erie's current win streak to a season-high four games.

Price nets first multi-goal game in NCAA

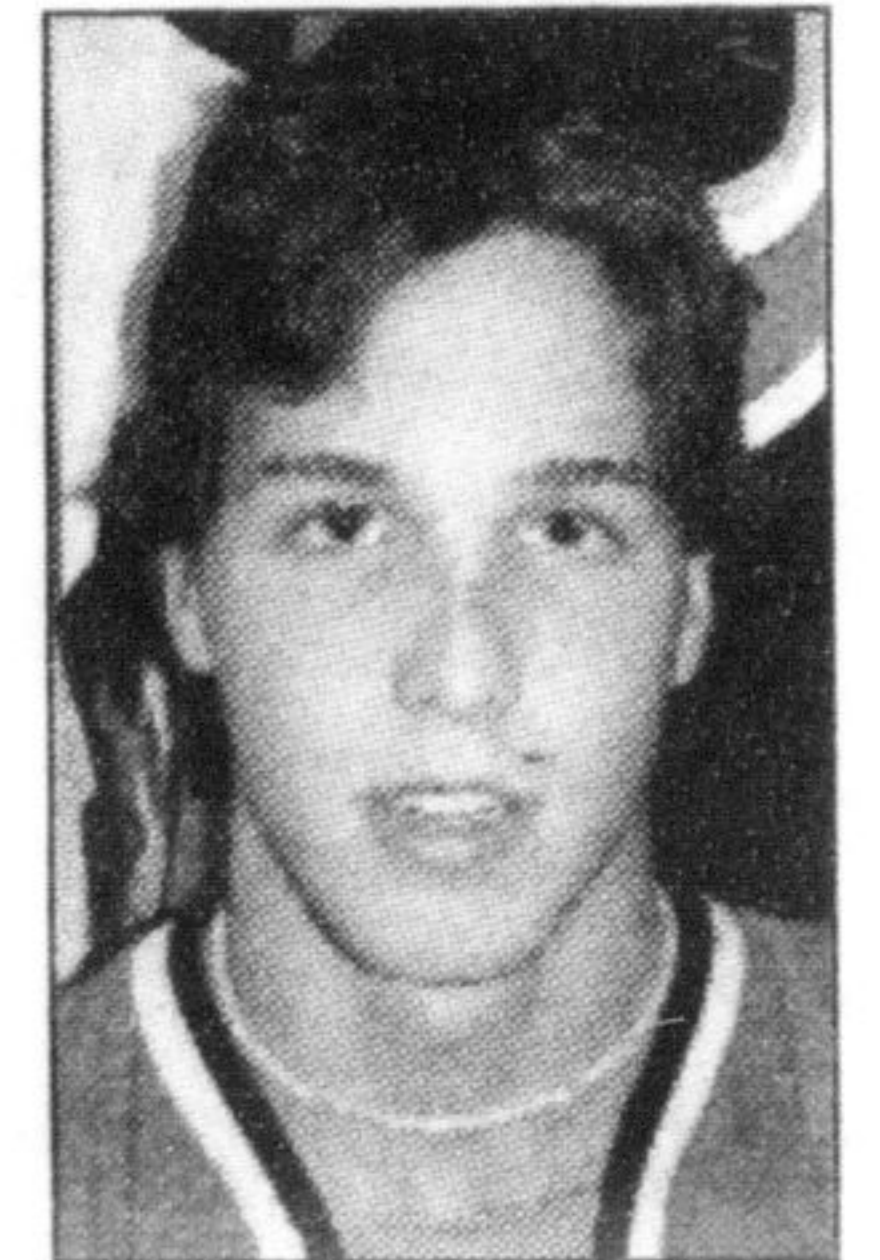

Jeremy Price delivered the first multi-goal game of his NCAA December 20, netting first and third-period markers for his Colgate Raiders.

Unfortunately the freshman defenceman's efforts were overshadowed by a late rally by the Canisius Griffins, who pulled out a 7-6 overtime win — handing the Raiders their third loss in four games and dropping them to 7-6-4 on the year.

A fourth-round draft pick of Vancouver this past summer, Price now has three goals and three assists in 16 games for Colgate.

Big brother Matt is now serving as captain for the Boston College Eagles, who are on a seven-game unbeaten streak (6-0-1) and are ranked fifth nationally.
