*Between who we are and who we become, Between what we have been given and what we seek,
 Between what we touch
 and what is beyond,
 And between what changes and what endures
 Are the people and the friends who help us build the dreams we strive for.*

I would like to wish my clients, colleagues, friends and family all the very best for 2010. Thank you for your continued support!
