

TV show 'Real Life' at local spa

A lifestyle TV show will be taping for an upcoming episode at a local spa this evening.

CTS's Real Life will be on location at Total Skin and Body Spa, 258 Main St. E., to launch the show's Bliss in Paradise contest for brides-to-be.

It'll also feature a swimwear fashion show of designs by local resident and spa manager Carol Fuller.

The public is invited to arrive for the event — being billed an indoor beach party — at 6:30 p.m. Taping will start at 7 p.m., with the show expected to air in the near future.

It airs weekdays at 4:30 p.m.

Fuller's designs will be part of the Bliss in Paradise destination wedding prize package that's expected to be awarded later this year.

She's the creator of Hollenbreez Swimwear and the 'Kini Dress, which turns any bikini into a sundress or cocktail dress, or, for a destination wedding, a bridesmaid dress or wedding gown.

Blues on the Escarpment concert series at Hardball

Looking to catch the blues?

A new weekly concert series, Blues on the Escarpment, recently started up at the Hardball Café and features the finest in local talent as well as renowned international musicians.

Each Friday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., house band Shrimp Daddy and the Sharpshooters takes to the floor, along with weekly guests and co-host Bill "Mojo Willie" Rymer.

"(This is) a wonderful opportunity for Milton residents to hear and dance to world class, award-winning blues, soul and R&B artists in concert each week," Rymer said.

Shrimp Daddy — a.k.a. Milton's own Mike Reid — and the Sharpshooters cranks out upbeat jump, swing and rockin' blues.

Tomorrow's featured guest performer will be Michael Pickett, while next month's lineup will include Jon Knight (February 5), Shawn Kellerman (February 12), Joe Beard (February 19), and Chuck Jackson and Pat Carey (February 26).

Beard, a Mississippi bluesman, is one of the last living Delta blues guitarists and was influenced by the legendary Son House, Reid said, while Jackson — of the Downchild Blues Band — has been a Halton icon for years.

"Whether you're 20-something or 50-something, you will be entertained," Reid said.

A $10 cover charge is in place.

The Hardball Café is located at 8750 Regional Road 25, north of Hwy. 401. For more information, call (905) 876-2582.

Church seeks accompanist

Looking to put your musical experience to good use?

Ebenezer United Church near Brookville is looking for an accompanist to work with the music director and small choir during Thursday night practices (7:45 to 9:30 p.m.) and Sunday morning services (10 to 11:30 a.m.), as well as other special services.

The church is looking for someone who reads music and can take direction from the music director and pastor.

Previous experience playing Christian music — both traditional and contemporary — and the ability to play organ is an asset.

Those interested should email their resumes/experience to pjvb@speedway.ca or call Janice at (905) 854-5697 or Martha at (519) 853-4396.
