"DATELINE DRURY"

Deborah Manalo

Kelly Antaya

To start off with, we would just like to say that Soumil Narayan will be ending his tenure here with us as one of Drury's student writers, and we would like to thank him for all of his hard work. But we are also very happy to welcome our newest writer, Laura Finlan, who will be working with us to finish the year.

Moving on, there has been plenty going on at Drury now that exams have finished, and a new semester has begun. First of all, there have been various fundraisers taking place at the school over the last week to raise money for relief in Haiti. Our very own Global Council has planned several initiatives to raise money for their newest project, "Hearts for Haiti", the first of these fundraisers taking place last week. All proceeds from Hearts For Haiti will go towards building a new school in Haiti. Our Centre Students also held their own fundraiser, "Centre Students Support Haiti!" day last Friday in the Drury Cafe, with all sales profit going to Hearts For Haiti. Thank you to all students who have and currently are participating in this great new project!

There is also an ongoing fundraiser that is taking place to help raise money for this year's prom. It began with a number of committed students that ran "Sweets for your Sweetie", where they sold Valentine's Day themed cookies, cupcakes and candy, and there will be more events to follow.

Speaking of which, Drury's Semi-Formal dance is just around the corner! It will be taking place just this Thursday, and it is bound to be a great night!

Last week students at Drury were having fun celebrating the Olympics. A number of students participated in a Drury-style simulation of the Winter Olympics with games such as curling, hockey, bobsledding, and more, right here at our school!

On the topic of sports, Drury's wrestlers have been on top of the competition! They had a busy week competing in the Lourdes tournament and the provincial championships. In the Lourdes tournament Duncan Moffat, Zack Brady, and Jeff Sinclair all came home with gold medals in their respective weight classes while Blair Norland returned with silver, and Curt Barter with the bronze. At the provincial championships Arie Moldvan and Reed Nicholson both placed in fourth in their weight categories, while Luke Campbell and James Ponton placed fifth. Congratulations to our wrestlers and good luck at GHAC!

This has been a great start to our final semester of this year! And on a final note, we would just like to send our best wishes out to all of our Canadian Olympic athletes. Go Canada!
