

Reid earns promotion to AHL's River Rats

Milton's Elgin Reid earned his second recall to the American Hockey League.

Reid picked up a point in his first game back with the Albany River Rats, assisting on Jonathan Paiement's first-period goal in an 8-2 loss to the Hershey Bears.

The 23-year-old defenceman was held off the scoresheet in Albany's other two weekend games. Reid has two assists in five games with Albany this season.

He had five goals and 21 points in 43 games with the Florida Everblades of the East Coast Hockey League before his recall.

Controversial goal evens Tri-County final

A controversial goal helped the Georgetown Raiders even the best-of-five minor atom AE Tri-County Minor Hockey League final at a game apiece Tuesday.

With the game tied 2-2, a Georgetown player batted the puck down with a high stick and was ruled a goal. But it wasn't the high stick that concerned Milton coach Dave Brough, it was that he said the puck never entered the net — and he has video proof.

Regardless, the goal stood as the winner, tying the series at one game each.

Georgetown opened the scoring in the first period. Jacob Brough made two stops before the Raiders slipped the rebound by him.

Milton's Adam Nicholson tied game, roofing the puck after taking a pass from Lucas Haren.

Milton jumped in front on Nicholson's second goal of the evening, this time on the power play as he swatted home a rebound from the side of the net. Antony Lamontagne and Owen Cascagnette earned assists on the goal.

Georgetown evened the score on a tip-in before getting the controversial game winner.

Milton had an opportunity to tie the game in the final minute but Scottie Martini's shot from the slot sailed over the net.
