M&M holds barbecue

A15 • Tuesday, May 4, 2010 MILTON CHAMPION • www.miltoncanadianchampion.com

Pay a little, eat a lot. That's the theme of M&M Meat Shops' annual charity barbecue in support of Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis.

Now in its 22nd year, the barbecue will run Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Those dropping by the Main/Ontario street store will receive a hamburger or hot dog, a drink and a bag of chips for a minimum donation of $2.50. For an additional $2, supporters can cool down with a strawberry shortcake bar or crunchy almond bar.

All the food and time is donated, so every penny raised goes to the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of Canada's research programs.

This year M&M Meat Shops' barbecue is being supported by Amanda Holmes — the daughter of popular contractor Mike Holmes — who's suffered from Crohn's disease since she was a teenager.

Fundraiser at South 202

Imagine a world in which every kid has access to an education.

That's the spirit behind an upcoming fundraiser that's sure to have your taste buds watering.

As part of the Room to Read program, Main Street's South 202 Mediterranean Restaurant will play host to a wine tasting for world change event Friday, May 14.

Running from 6 to 8 p.m., the event will feature wine tasting/food pairings, as well as a silent auction and live music. There will be a small presentation about each pairing by chef and owner John Teixeira.

Proceeds from the evening will go to the Room to Read program, which provides books and other educational materials for children in underdeveloped countries. Tickets cost $50 each and are available by contacting Maurine at (416) 844-6267 or maurine.gillberry@sympatico.ca.

Tea and bake sale for charity

Continuing its sole-ful display of goodwill, Milton's Walking On A Cloud shoe store is once again looking to support breast cancer research.

The Maple Avenue store aims to surpass last year's overall contribution of $44,941.83 — and hopes its latest fundraising effort provides a big boost toward that end.

It comes this Friday, with a spring tea and bake sale, which runs from noon to 2 p.m.

All proceeds will go to the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation.
