

Track & field Huskies take second overall at Everett meet

On the strength of 11 first-place performances, Hawthorne Village secured second place overall at last week's Everett Track and Field Meet.

The lion's share of that success was enjoyed in the junior boys ranks, where the Huskies collected 10 top-three finishes — including three wins. Rylee Buckle delivered two of those, turning back all challengers in the 200m (29.55s) and the high jump (1.35m).

Joining him in the winner's circle was Cameron Gulley, who prevailed in the 1,500m (5:34.88) and was second in the 400m.

Field specialist Trinity Sluz also had a double dose of gold, winning both the shot-put (9.07m) and long jump (3.91m) to lead a three-medal campaign for the junior girls.

The senior boys grabbed six medals, including golden efforts in the high jump (1.52m) and triple jump (9.20m) by Myles Medford and Asa Webb respectively.

Stefan Selgard's 13.15s finish in the 100m and a 9.95m triple jump by Zach Boswell were both good enough to reign supreme among the intermediate boys — and highlight a five-medal showing for Hawthorne Village.

The senior girls matched that overall medal count, which featured Julia Hayes' winning shot-put of 8.56m.

The Huskies' intermediate girls managed a pair of top-three placings, including a first for Alexsia Louiszis in the triple jump (7.74m).

Tiger Jr. slated to perform as part of first-ever TigerFest fundraiser

Get ready to rumble.

Adding a competitive element to this year's Milton Street Festival, internationally-renowned former pro wrestler Tiger Jeet Singh and son Tiger Ali Singh will bring the squared circle to Main Street Saturday afternoon and evening — with their first-ever TigerFest.

Running from noon to 7 p.m. in front of Troy's Diner, the event will kick off with top amateur high school grapplers demonstrating their stuff, while a pro wrestling exhibition — featuring Tiger Jr. — will run from 5 to 7 p.m. Among those confirmed to perform are former WWF star Greg 'The Hammer' Valentine, Sonjay Dutt of recent TNA fame and Ring of Honor's Steve Corino.

Another notable name or two from the independent wrestling scene may well be part of the festivities as well.

A demonstration of CrossFit and boxing by FirePower Training will also be held between the amateur and pro wrestling stints — with local pugilist Brad Houle taking to the ring for the first time in more than a decade — while Tiger Sr. and Jr. will be on hand to sign autographs on specially-designed t-shirts, which will be sold for $20 each. Proceeds will go to the Milton District Hospital Foundation.

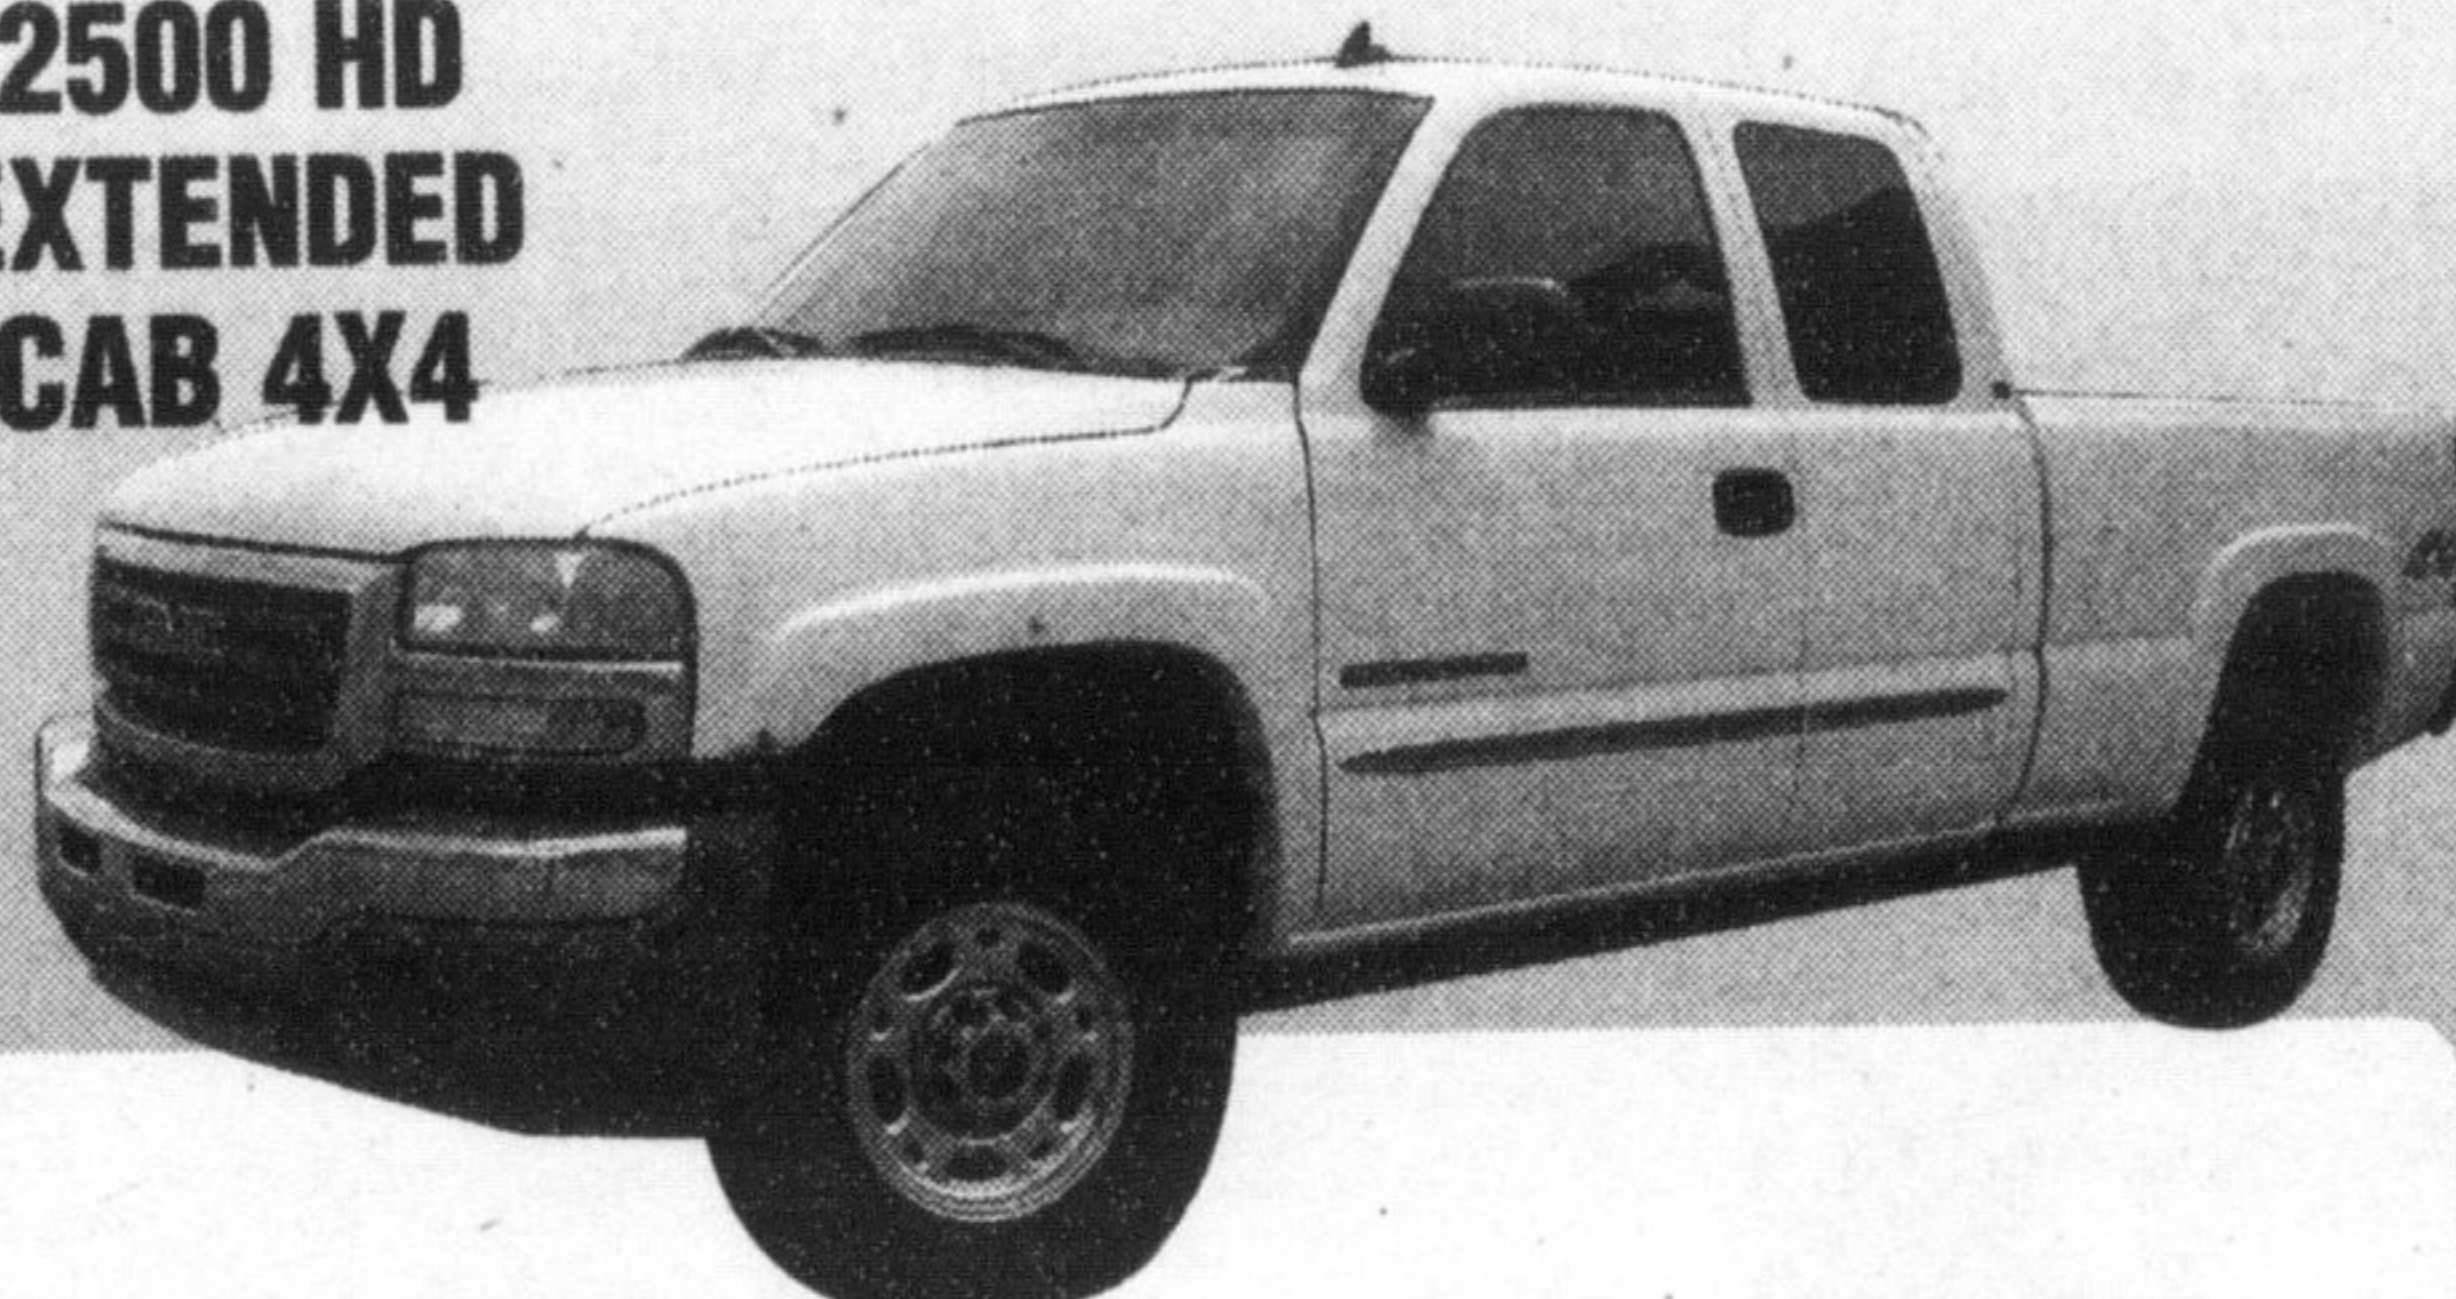

Any local businesses wishing to help sponsor the wrestling/boxing event can visit www.tigerjeetsingh.com for more information.
