

Musician to record live for CD during concert June 12

Music lovers are invited to take part in a live recording at an upcoming concert — the launch of a local singer/songwriter's solo career.

Musician Kev Morse will take to the stage Saturday, June 12 at 7:30 p.m. at Milton Bible Church, 200 Main St. E.

Together with a drummer and bass guitarist, Morse will sing and play acoustic guitar, performing songs from his upcoming debut solo album Under the Broomtree, scheduled to be finished in the fall.

The entire concert will be recorded, with select songs to become part of the album.

"The whole idea is to get an audience out for an event that will potentially be on a CD," Morse said.

The show will also feature special guest Tim Alberts.

Tickets cost $15 at the door.

Morse has been a musician for the past 25 years, performing with various groups, including The Great Wooden Trio, which incorporates storytelling. He has also been the music director at Milton Bible Church.

Along the way, he's been quietly writing songs and gearing up for a chance to — one day — record them.

It seems that day has finally arrived for the long-time Miltonian, a married father of two kids.

He describes his style as folk-rock or roots, with songs encompassing a variety of themes.

"There's definitely a spiritual aspect," he said.

He's excited to embark on this solo venture, but knows it can be difficult to promote oneself locally and get the word out.

"Nervous excitement is a good way to put it," he said. "One of the challenges of being a singer/songwriter is most venues want to hear more opportunities for singer/songwriters to do their thing in Milton on a regular basis." Stephanie Hounsell can be reached at sthiessen@miltoncanadianchampion.com.
