

Country Renaissance Festival this weekend

Event returns to Milton; to be held Saturday, Sunday at Country Heritage Park

Travelling back in time won't require you to travel too far this weekend.

Reacquainting area residents with one of history's more colourful periods, the Country Renaissance Festival returns to Country Heritage Park Saturday and Sunday.

From 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day, King Henry VIII and his royal court will visit the village of Whittingham, where they'll delight onlookers with everything from jousting for the queen's favour to a human chess match.

Park-goers will also have the opportunity to test their skills at archery, witness the firing of the Ballista, see a puppet show and savour a smoked turkey leg and ale.

A Saturday evening adults-only Renaissance Intrigue — featuring the costumed performers — will offer song and dance and general revelry.

Tickets cost $12 for adults and $8 for both seniors and children six to 12 years of age. Kids five and under get in free.

Country Heritage Park is located at 8560 Tremaine Rd.
