

Tough end to great tourney run

A premature end to its offensive oomph squashed a local soccer team's hopes for an unbeaten run at last weekend's King City Classic Tournament.

The International Alliance Soccer Academy's (I.A.S.A.) Under-12 team — the only boys and girls mixed entry at the tournament — had its title hopes dashed in the finals by Bolton FC, which earned payback for a first-round loss by prevailing 2-0.

Bolton went un-penalized for a couple of tackles and sealed the deal with a late insurance marker.

Unlike the previous two games, goalkeeper Jameel Alidina was kept busy throughout the championship, and stood tall to keep the verdict in doubt until the bitter end.

Despite having edged Bolton 2-1 in the tournament opener — on a pair of goals by

Avery Cornfoot — the local pre-teens came out a bit sluggish and didn't put up enough defensive resistance for much of the game.

That was certainly not the case through rounds two and three, with I.A.S.A. scoring back-to-back 3-0 whitewashes over the Aurora Stingers and Huntsville FC.

Alidina was largely untested in both contests — thanks largely to a suffocating defensive campaign — while Jonathan Bryant and tournament MVP Richard Reid scored in each victory.

Also finding the back of the net were Nicholas Oliviera and nine-year-old David Thompson, one of several players competing against opponents much older than them.

Heading into the weekend, the I.A.S.A. squad had been undefeated in 21 games, dating back to the late stages of 2009.

Tyke Mavericks capture 'B' title in Arthur

Milton's tyke rep lacrosse team ushered in summer on a championship note, laying claim to the 'B' title at the Arthur Tournament Sunday.

On the strength of impressive goaltending by Noah Meridew and a fairly balanced attack, the Mavericks distanced themselves from an opening-round loss to Mimico (7-5) to upstage Huntsville 10-6 and then dispose of the hosts 13-6 in the 'B' finals.

The latter win featured two competitive periods before Milton pulled away down the stretch.

Captain Ryan Hasselfeldt and Zach Tarr led offensively with the bulk of the scoring, while Sam Taylor notched his first goal of the season against Arthur.

Ryan Patterson delivered some great physical play, with the speed and precision passing of Riley Ford, Blake Dredge, Noah Faulknor and Jason Robinson also factoring heavily into the decisive title win.

Rounding out this year's tykes are Zach Cole, Tyler Cunningham, Christopher Harland, Ben Madden, Reid Playtor, Nathan Wilson, Will Purdie and Tyler Spiegelhalter.
