A 34-year-old man from Milton was killed after his motorcycle struck an SUV on Fifth Line near Lower Baseline Road Friday afternoon. His identity hasn't been released.

Motorcycle driver hits SUV head on

A local man is dead after his motorcycle struck another vehicle head-on in rural Milton Friday afternoon.

The 34-year-old man was driving his motorcycle northbound on Fifth Line, south of Lower Baseline Road, when he struck a southbound SUV shortly after 3 p.m.

The driver of the SUV, a 49-year-old Milton woman, wasn't injured.

Halton Regional Police said it appears the motorcycle driver failed to negotiate a bend in the road.

The man was pronounced dead at the scene.

His identity hasn't been released.

Halton Regional Police's Collision Reconstruction Unit is investigating.

Lower Baseline Road was closed between Fifth and Sixth lines and re-opened by 10 p.m.

Anyone with information on the collision is asked to call Halton police at (905) 825-4747, ext. 2410, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
