Pedestrian struck on 401

A pedestrian is in hospital with life-threatening injuries after he was struck while crossing Hwy. 401 Monday night.

The OPP's Port Credit Detachment reported that a 50-year-old London man was crossing the eastbound lanes of Hwy. 401 just before the Regional Road 25 overpass for unknown reasons — police said he might

He was rushed to Milton District Hospital and then transported by air ambulance to Hamilton General Hospital.

The incident remains under investigation. Witnesses are asked to contact the OPP's PC Muller at (905) 278-6131.
