Payback victory in national semis

• from PAINFUL on page A18
silver medalists rallied from a 21-14 game-one loss to win 21-18, 15-12.

"We were serving to their smaller guy to start (the semifinals), but that didn't seem to be working, so we went to the other guy late in the first game and that made a big difference," said six-foot-one-inch MacIntyre, whose side led the tiebreaker from start to finish and made two aces en route to reaching the finals.

Far exceeding their second-place seeding, MacIntyre and Maar lost just twice in round-robin play, including a narrow weekend-opening defeat to the champs.

"We got an early taste of just how good they'd be," said the local volleyball standout, who was more aggressive with his overall attacking this summer — his second on the competitive beach scene.
