

Nine artists featured at gallery this month

Almost a dozen artists will ensure not a wall at the A.M. Gallery in Milton Mall remains blank this month.

Instead, they'll be covered with the colourful, unique and thought-provoking offerings of nine artists exhibiting throughout September.

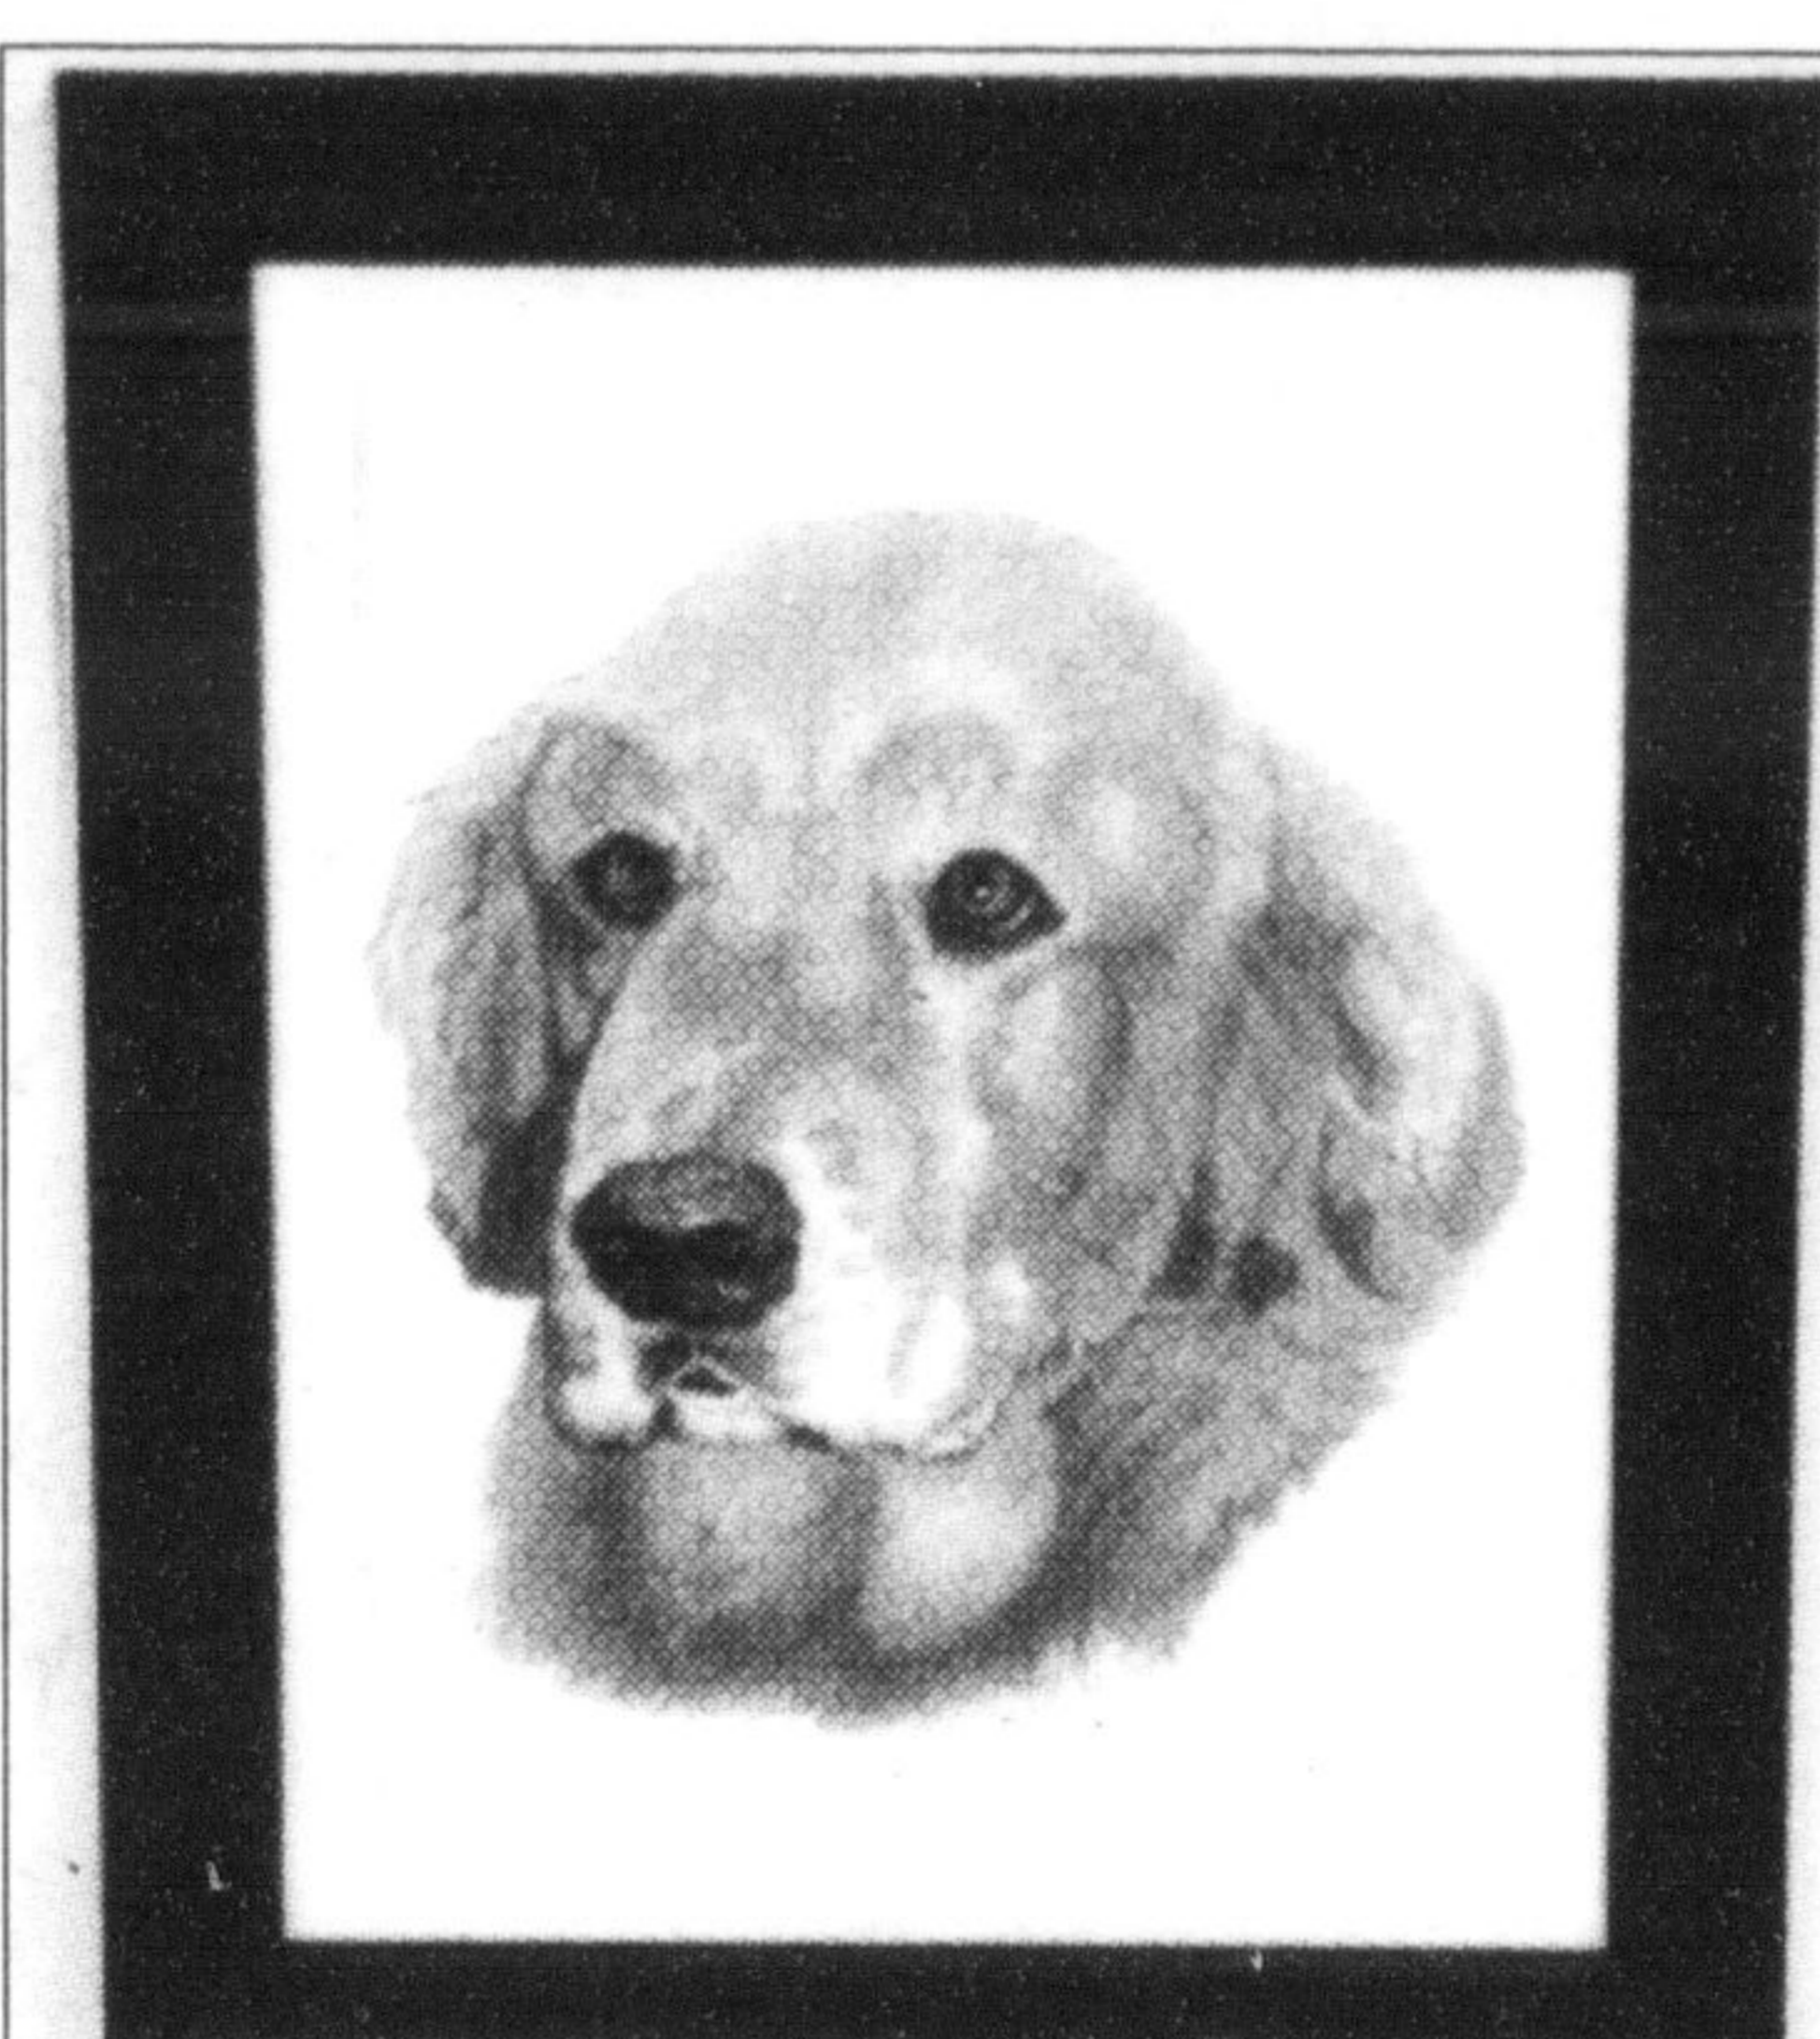

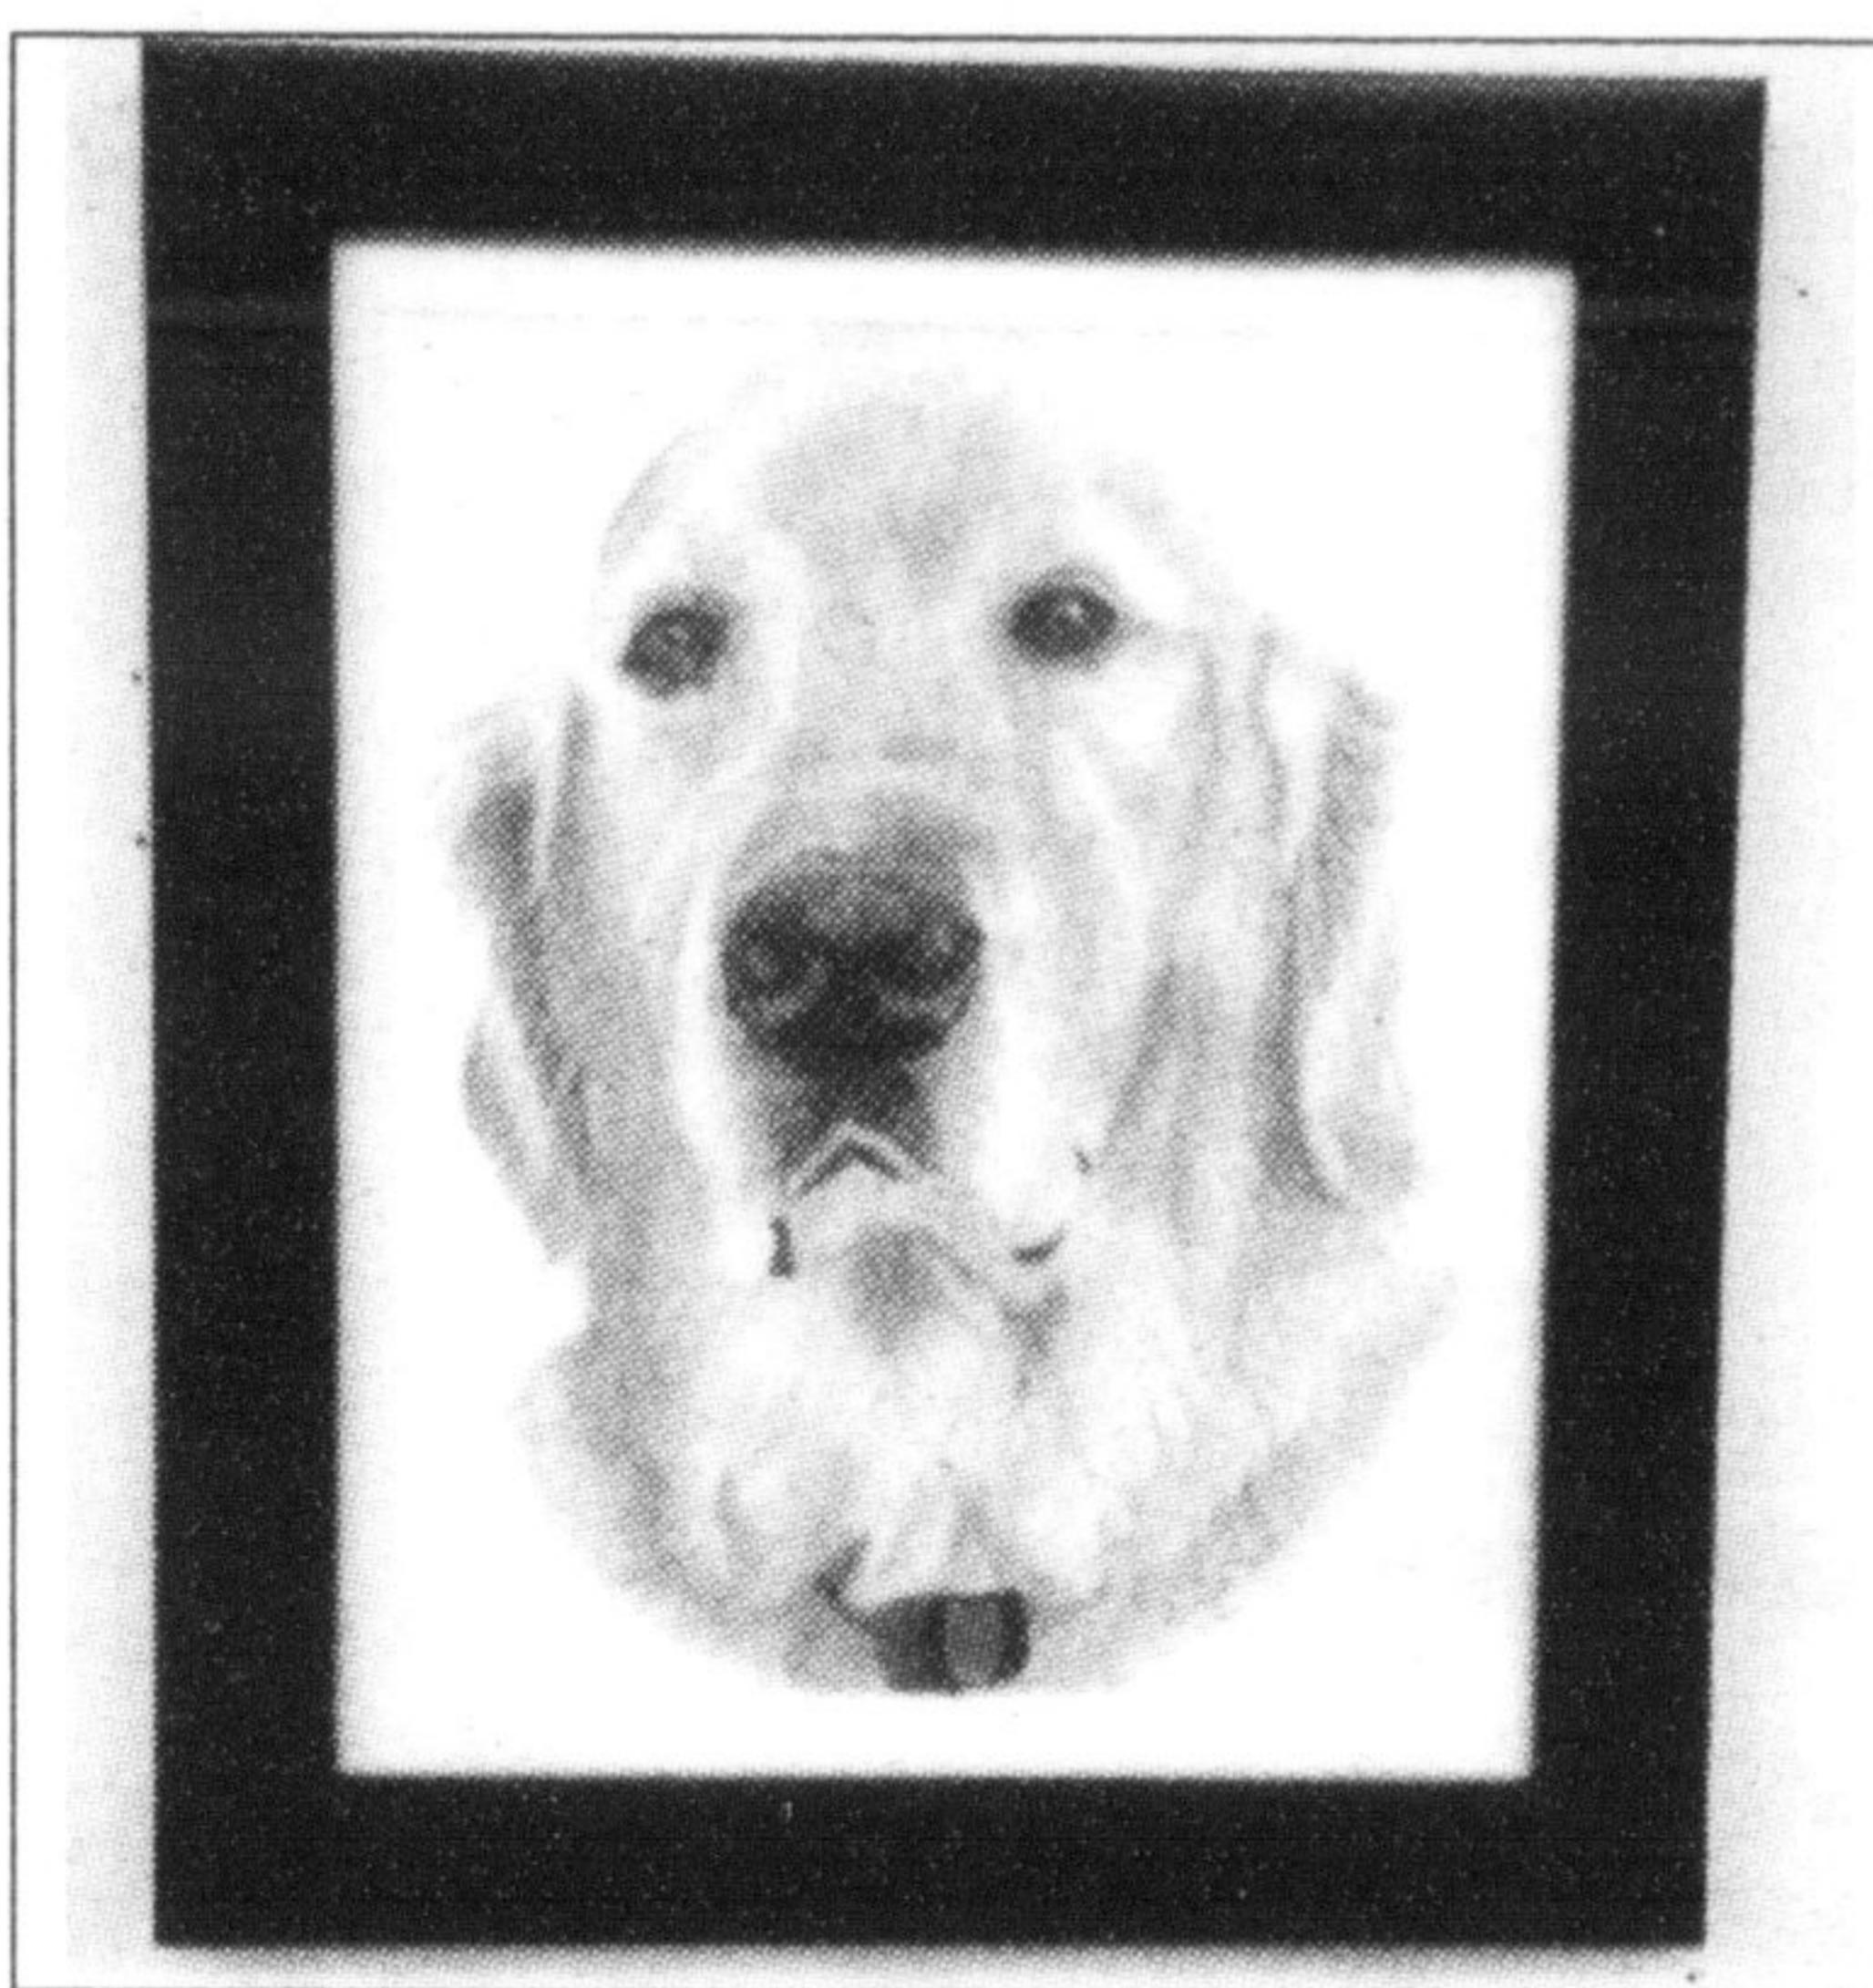

The artists are: Ian Ridpath, Ted Pierrepont, Virginia Wilson Toccalino, Russell Jodway, Fedor Yatsik, Priscilla Marroquin, Lakshmi Venkataraman, Angie Sandeman and Colleen Bartlett.

Pieces will include oil paintings, photography, hand-blown glass items, pen and ink illustrations and mixed media works.

Also displaying their artwork are clients of Milton's Bob Rumball Associations for the Deaf and DeafBlind Ontario Services, participants of the Sensory Exploration Arts Program.

The gallery, which is a collaboration between Arts Milton, the Fine Arts Society of Milton and Milton Mall, is open Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

ON DISPLAY: Above, a canvas work by Colleen Bartlett (inset) entitled 'Owl Eyes' is among those by the nature artist that are currently on display at the A.M. Gallery. At right, pencil crayon colour pet portraits — like these two dogs — are what Angie Sandeman (far right) brings to the gallery this month.
