Keeping Terry's dream alive

Milton marked the 30th anniversary of the Terry Fox Run with favourable weather and another sizable turnout Sunday at E.C. Drury High School. Roughly $33,000 was raised this year. Clockwise from left, 78-year-old Glenna Dempster — who's been taking part in the run for the past 24 years — gets a post-run hug from granddaughter Avery, 10, who's been a participant her entire life. Tara Gilpin runs the course. Longtime friends and cancer survivors Tina Henneberry (left) and Marjorie Long complete their last lap. Greg Atkins rides the course with two-year-old son Ryan. Milton firefighters pull a pick-up truck with a little help from a young friend.
