

Cross-country locals set the pace

Holy Rosary's Katie Walker and St. Peter's Kaylin McKee were victorious at last week's Halton Catholic District School Board elementary cross-country meet.

Walker won the mite girls' B division race and McKee took first in the bantam girls' B division.

Cameron Gowthorpe of Holy Rosary was second in the tyke boys' B division and Santiago Patarroyo from Guardian Angels took second place in the atom boys' C division race.

Also finishing second was Jason Sousa of Holy Rosary in the midget boys' B division. Holy Rosary's Carly Zylak was third in the mite girls' D division.

In team standings, Holy Rosary edged St. Timothy 31-34 to win the bantam boys' A division. St. Peter finished second in the mite boys' C division, Holy Rosary lost a close race, 42-46, in the mite girls' D division and St. Peter finished second to St. Elizabeth Seton in the bantam girls' race.

CLEARING THE ZONE: IceHawk Riley McGilloway (7) muscles Oakville's Anthony Cortellessa off the puck as teammate Justin Pereira clears the zone during Jr. A hockey action at Memorial Arena Sunday afternoon. Milton rallied from a 4-2 deficit in the third period, only to be vanquished in overtime. They now sit at 2-0-0-2-0-11. IceHawks captain James Woodcroft added six goals and two assists over the past week and continues to sit second overall in the league scoring race with 17 goals and 16 helpers. He has at least one point in every game so far and has factored into exactly two thirds of the club's scoring. The IceHawks begin a home-and-home series with Mississauga Friday at 7:30 p.m.
