

Attempted murder case in Milton court next month

A Milton man charged with attempted murder in connection with the stabbing of a teen on Thompson Road is scheduled to make a court appearance next month.

Charles Canavan, 18, is to appear at Ontario Court of Justice in Milton December 6.

The date was set at his most recent appearance Monday.

Just before 2 a.m. May 29, an 18-year-old Milton man was stabbed in the abdomen on Thompson Road, just south of Childs Drive, during an altercation.

The suspect has also been charged with assault with a weapon, assault, possession of a dangerous weapon and breach of recognition in connection with two separate altercations in the area just prior to the stabbing.

In one altercation, a young adult male was assaulted, while the other involved an attempted stabbing of a second male young adult.

Both victims are from Milton.

Bail hearing expected today

A Milton man charged with numerous human trafficking- and child prostitution-related crimes is expected in court for a bail hearing today.

Aldain Beckford, 25, who has been remanded in custody and was last scheduled to appear in Milton court Friday, will attend Ontario Court of Justice in Burlington.

A publication ban has been ordered on the proceedings.
